Miss Gertrude MacKenzie, formerly of this city, arrived in the city on the Catala yesterday morning from Vancouver to spend a couple of weeks here visiting with friends.

Rev. Dr. S. S. Osterhout, superintendent of missions for the United Church of Canada, was a passenger aboard the Catala Sunday night going through from Namu to Port Simpson. Dr. Osterhout is on one of his periodical visits to northern missions.

For drinking liquor in a public place, Thomas Woodhouse was fined $50, with option of thirty days' imprisonment, by Magistrate McClymont in city police court yesterday. Woodhouse is serving the time.

Mrs. William McLeod, who has been visiting for the past three months in Calgary with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Watson, will be home on the Prince George tomorrow morning. Her mother came as far as Vancouver with her.

Junior Stepp, son of Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Stepp, formerly of this city and now of Ketchikan, has been nominated as a candidate from Alaska for entry to West Point Naval Academy and next spring will take the examinations which will qualify him to enter. Junior has been engaged in aviation in Alaska.

Rev. (Captain) and Mrs. W. A. Delap will be leaving on the Prince George on Thursday night for Vancouver whence they will proceed to Montreal to embark for Ireland. For the past few years in charge of the Anglican Church mission boat Northern Cross here, Capt. Delap is to take over a parish in Ireland.

James Mitchell, rancher of the Saskatoon district, after spending the past week here visiting with his brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Alex Finnie, is sailing this afternoon on the Catala for Vancouver. Owing to repeated crop failures in Saskatchewan, Mr. Mitchell is thinking of moving west.

Was Located For Years On Skeena

John Robert Brown Was Ex-Service Man and Is Survived by Family

John Robert Brown, whose body was recovered Sunday from the Skeena River where he was drowned last month, was 47 years of age and had been located for years at Port Essington where he followed salmon fishing. He served in France during the Great War. A widow and three children survive.

The remains have been brought here from Port Essington for interment under auspices of the Canadian Legion with Haynor Bros in charge of arrangements. The widow came to the city with the body.

ASSIZE DOCKET LIGHT

The docket for the fall session of the Supreme Court Assizes to be held here on September 29 will be a light one. So far the list contains only three divorce petitions with neither criminal or civil cases.

Regular monthly meeting of the Prince Rupert Ministerial Association will, it is expected, be resumed in October. The meeting scheduled for yesterday was not held.

Party In Honor Of Miss White

Affair For Popular Girl Who Is Leaving For Halifax to be Married

A farewell party was held last night at the home of Mrs. Charles Currie in honor of Miss Evelin White who is leaving Thursday evening for Halifax to be married, visiting in Vancouver and Winnipeg enroute.

The evening was spent in playing bridge, community singing and with an amateur hour conducted by Miss Jean Scott. Prize winners at bridge were Miss Helen Hampton, first, and Miss Jessie Cherry, second.

Dainty refreshments were served by the hostess after which Miss Nora Rudderham presented the bride-to-be with a handsome silver sugar, cream and tray. The set was suitably engraved with "Best Wishes from the Nutty Club."

Those present were: Misses Evelin White, Nora Rudderham, Lillian Davies, Helen Hampton, Jessie Cherry, Jean Scott, Doris Webster, Winnie Tucker, Margaret Fritz, Mildred Lindsay, Marjorie Weeks, Mrs. W. J. Richards, Mrs. Chas. Currie.

The happy evening was brought to an end by giving three cheers, and singing, "For She's a Jolly Good Fellow."

Weather Forecast

General Synopsis—A rising high pressure is now centred over Northern British Columbia and fine warm weather continues over the rest of the province.

Prince Rupert and Queen Charlotte Islands—Moderate shifting winds, cloudy and cool with scattered showers.

West Coast of Vancouver Island—Moderate winds, mostly north and east, fine with little change in temperature.

Frank Dodsworth Jr. was a passenger aboard the Catala Monday morning going through to Anyox where he will visit with his sister.

Legion Executive Was In Session

Holds Meeting Preparatory to General Gathering to Hear Convention Reports

The executive of the Canadian Legion, Prince Rupert branch, was in session last evening. Members present were J. Preece, chairman, J. Rance, H. A. Breen, C. L. Youngman, C. L. Barker, J. A. Teng, J. Hadden and J. S. Wilson.

Matters of a routine nature were dealt with in preparation for the regular monthly meeting of Wednesday evening.

Circulars from the Dominion Command regarding the presentation of the case of ex-Imperial soldiers now resident in Canada as prepared by the Dominion President General Ross, the program of Legion activities during the winter and the organization of the annual "Poppy" campaign were read. It is expected that the Vimy Pilgrimage film "Salute to Valor" will be presented in the local theatre in the near future.

A feature of Wednesday evening's meeting will be the reports of W. M. Brown and J. S. Wilson who recently attended the Provincial Convention of the Canadian Legion at Penticton.
