New Flagpole At Smithers Is

SMITHERS, May 19: - The management of the Bulkley Valley District Hospital added one more decoration to the hospital grounds when it erected a very fine flagpole on the lawn near the hospital building on Saturday.

but now of Bremerton, Wash. I rises 70 feet above the ground and is topped with a large brass ball. Before erecting the pole, which was ready for the Coronation decorations, the brass ball was opened and a number of papers were placed inside. These included a picture of their majes ties, King George VI and Queen Elizabeth, a document bearing; the names of the president of the hospital, J. W. Turner and his P. O. Box 575 board of directors, the names of the hospital staff and the patients the were in the hospital on that date. Thus King George VI. President J. W. Turner and Sister Superior Mary Henrietta will rule over the Bulkley Valley District Hospital and its lovely sur roundings for many 'years to come and from a vantage point that also dominates the town of Smithers and a great deal of the Bulkley Valley.
