ROYAL FAMILIES FROM EUROPE FOR BRITISH CORONATION MAY 12

Score of Princes and Princesses Among Foreign Notables Expected For Great May Event

LONDON, April 30: (CP)—Forty-three nations will be represented at the Coronation of King George and Queen Elizabeth next month, and the foreign representatives will include a score of princes and princesses.

Roumania's chief representative will be the 16-year old Prince Michael, heir to the throne of King Carol. The young prince, whose official title is Great Voivode of Alba Julia, underwent a critical operation a few weeks ago.

Crown Prince Olaf was born at Sandringham 34 years ago. In 1929 he married Princess Martha of Sweden and they have two daughters. Like his father, Olaf is extremely popular in his own land and the Crown Prince and Princess have many friends in England.

Crown Prince Frederik of Denmark, who will be accompanied by the Crown Princess, was born in 1899. The Crown Princess—they were married in 1935—was formerly Princess Ingrid, daughter of the Crown Prince of Sweden.

Prince Felix of Luxembourg attends for the Grand Duchy, the little principality bounded by Germany, France and Belgium, with a population of 300,000.

China today is parting with the sedan chair and wheelbarrow age and attempting to mount the airplane era in one leap.

NEW YORK, April 30.—The New York stock market took another severe slump on Wednesday when industrial average dropped 4.31, rails 1.36 and utilities 1.05.

BUSMEN TO STRIKE

LONDON — London busmen have voted to strike at midnight tonight. The threatened walk-out by 145,000 men, which would paralyze the city's main public transport system, became a virtual certainty when union delegates decided today to instruct their men to quit.

RESIGNATION ASKED

EDMONTON — Hon. W. N. Chant, minister of agriculture in Alberta's Social Credit government since 1935, said here today that he had been asked for his resignation by Premier Aberhart. No official announcement was made concerning reasons for the demand for the resignation and the Premier had no statement to make.

YUKON COUNCIL OPPOSED

DAWSON, Y.T.—The Yukon council has passed a resolution "firmly and emphatically" protesting the proposed addition of this northern territory to British Columbia province. A plebiscite of the people of the Yukon should be taken, the council urges, before any action is taken. The council said it had knowledge that "sentiment in the territory was overwhelmingly opposed to any change." The governing body of the Yukon decided to send the Governor General-in-Council a memorial setting forth the opposition to placing the territory under administration of the province. The council in its first official comment "respectfully prays that no action be taken to carry out the proposal without approval of the majority of the people of the Yukon being given by a plebiscite."

Will Continue Search Off Coast of Alaska In Spite of Protest

Alaskan and Canadian Waters to be Re-visited Again In Course of Three-Year Plan Begun Last Year

TOKYO, April 30: (CP)—Japan will continue fishing surveys off the Alaskan coast in spite of opposition by the Canadian and United States fishing interests, the ministry of agriculture and forestry has made it clear. Fisheries and nautical experts are expected shortly to revisit Alaskan and Canadian waters in continuation of a search for new fishing grounds begun last year under a three-year plan. Canadian fisheries companies have protested that such experimentation indicated Japanese plans for encroachment of North American continental waters.
