DEFENSE PROGRAM IMPORTANT

Yesterday Tom Waying, veteran newspaper correspondent who visited England this year and say much that an ordinary visitor could not have seen, urged upon the members of the Canadian Club and their guests the importance of defense both as it applied to Britain and to Canada. In this scheme the two chief factors are the small armed vessels known as destroyers and military airplanes, one to keep the seas clear of submarines and prevent attack on merchant shipping and the other to prevent attacks on the coast by enemy airplanes.

Mr. Waying showed how already in Europe the defense policy of Great Britain had brought greater respect from neighbor nations. Nations want to be friends with a nation that is in a position to command respect. This makes for peace and his opinion is that under the changed condition there will be no great war in the near future such as had been feared. What has brought this about is the defense policy of Great Britain.

HITLERIZING

Sir Oswald Mosley in England and Premier Aberhart of Alberta are both making attempts at Hitlerizing. The people of England evidently are opposed to any such plan and one man showed his disapproval by heaving a rock at the Fascist leader and putting him temporarily out of business. In Alberta Premier Aberhart received a check in his wild political career when the Lieutenant Governor of the province referred three of the more extreme enactments to Ottawa for consideration.

The Lieutenant-Governors of the provinces are given powers which are supposed to be used only in extreme cases. This was one such case. The Premier had exceeded his powers under the constitution and the Lieutenant-Governor refused to be a party to it.

It is to be hoped that both Great Britain and Canada will carefully protect their democratic rights. It is important to keep a careful watch on all subversive movements, whether toward communism or fascism. One is the antidote of the other. It was the strong communistic movement in Italy that caused the rise of Fascism there and similarly the Red movement in Germany caused the rise of the Nazi government. If Aberhart were allowed to exercise autocratic powers in Alberta, doubtless there would be a Fascist movement spring up to offset it. Indeed it is to the credit of the people of Alberta that no such movement has already appeared. Force begets force. If Aberhart tries to seize dictatorial power it will soon be seen that other dictatorial forces will arise to combat it.

Judge Manson Is Honored In City Of Prince George

On the occasion of his first visit to Prince George since his elevation to the Supreme Court bench, Mr. Justice A. M. Manson was duly welcomed on behalf of the legal fraternity at the opening of the Assizes in Prince George last week. Comment suitable to the occasion was made by P. E. Wilson K.C., senior member of the bar in that district. As there were no criminal cases on the docket, His Lordship was presented with a pair of white gloves, Sheriff M. C. Wiggins making the presentation.

During his stay at Prince George, Mr. Justice Manson was tendered a complimentary luncheon by the Prince George Board of Trade, there being a large representative attendance with William Munro, president of the Board of Trade, and Mayor A. M. Patterson taking a prominent part in the proceedings.

Mr. Justice and Mrs. Manson left Prince George last Thursday for Vancouver.

Miss Ruth Gillies, stenographer in the Prince Rupert Fisheries Experimental Station, will return to the city on the Catala tomorrow evening following a holiday trip as far south as San Francisco. During her absence, her sister, Miss Edna Gillies, has been relieving at the station.

O.K. NOW FOR STAN TO COME

Picked Yankees to Win in Five Games—Keeps Peace With Friend Wife

Stan Morin of Prince Rupert and Lawrence Kubley of Ketchikan in New York to attend the World Series, crashed the metropolitan sport pages last week. The New York Sun Tuesday week gave them almost half a column with the following write-up:

Two dyed-in-the-wool fans from the north are in town impatiently awaiting the cry of "Play ball!" at the Yankee Stadium tomorrow.

The visitors are Lawrence Kubley, a forty-three-year-old theater manager of Ketchikan and Juneau, Alaska, and his friend, Stan Morin, 42, a cafe owner of Prince Rupert, British Columbia, Canada who have travelled about 4,000 miles to witness the climax of the baseball season.

Kubley and Morin are by no means novices at baseball. Each manages a baseball team and when Ketchikan and Prince Rupert square off it is a serious matter.

Not infrequently the pair visit Seattle to see Pacific Coast League teams in action with the result that such Yankees as DiMaggio, Gomez, Lazzeri, Crosetti, Hoag and

Pearson, all former Pacific Coast players, will hardly be strangers to them. Morin has picked the Yanks to win in five games and won't dare go home if they don't because his wife, an ardent Yankee rooter, will be so angry she won't speak to him for two months, according to her husband. Kubley won't venture an opinion on the outcome of the series but has put up a small bet with his pal that Hubbell will trim Gomez's sails in the first game. Kubley and Morin, who are resting in the Hotel New Yorker today after "doing the town" upon their arrival here early yesterday morning, met at Prince Rupert on September 16 and sailed for Vancouver, B. C. There they took an airplane for Chicago.

From Chicago they worked their way to New York by easy stages, warming up for the series by taking in games at Chicago, Cleveland, Cincinnati, Pittsburgh and Philadelphia. The Yankee-Giant series will be the first world series for Morin and the second for Kubley, who saw the Boston Red Sox down the Brooklyn Dodgers in 1916.
