LARGE DEFENSE PROGRAM FOR CANADA

and this he managed to do. His only disappointment was that the men who really counted such as the prime ministers and other people's representatives, were kept in the background while the front positions were given to men who were there through accident of birth. He thought the premiers should have been given the most important positions at the coronation.

Thinks Back

The speaker said he found himself thinking back to the time of William the Conqueror, the King who first brought order to Britain and then of the constant struggle which went on until Henry VIII finally created a parliament which unwittingly became supreme. He spoke of the position of King George VI and the wonderful way in which he fitted into the picture. Although not trained for the Kingship, he had taken over the job like a man. Earlier he had been at the battle of Jutland and when invalided home had joined the air force. He also mentioned the activity of the king in his earlier days in working out a plan of human relationship for young boys.

Mr. Wayling also told of a visit to Germany where he found the people very friendly and of an event when the war veterans were entertained at the famous Winter Garden where the whole audience cheered the King and closed with the hearty singing of the British National Anthem. One of the features of the German plan was the formation of Labor battalions from the unemployed with the result that there were today only a million unemployed in the country whereas there were six million only a few years ago. All the people looked well fed and happy. They gave him the idea of a people who wanted to be left alone. There was a similar feeling about Italy which he also visited.

Before coming home Mr. Wayling said he visited Scotland and rode with Lady Aberdeen to her home. This old lady, who still called herself a Canadian, had recently written a book, "The Musings of a Scotch Granny" at eighty years of age. She worshipped the memory of W. E. Gladstone and was still a member of the national executive of the Liberal Party.

In regard to the Duke of Windsor Mr. Wayling said he felt with the foreword in the book "We Shall Watch His Career with Affectionate Anxiety."

Audience Appreciated

Mrs. F. N. Good presided and a vote of thanks was moved by Mrs. A. E. Parlow seconded by Mrs. J. R. Morrison. The address lasted for about an hour and a half and even then the audience was reluctant to leave and crowded around the speaker to express appreciation. It was the wittiest and one of the most interesting addresses ever delivered to the club, so the members say.

A further organization meeting of the new Women's Auxiliary to the Prince Rupert General Hospital which was to have been held last night, has been postponed until next Tuesday evening.

BIRTHDAY OF CHURCH

Anniversary of First United Church Observed with Congregational Dinner Last Evening

The annual anniversary supper last night of the congregation of First United Church proved, as usual, a pleasant affair. In spite of the inclemency of the weather, about one hundred were in attendance. The social parlors and the tables were tastefully adorned with autumn flowers. There was an excellent spread and an acceptable program was presented. Rev. J. C. Jackson, the pastor, presided.

The program, arranged by Mrs. F. M. Davis, included piano solos by Miss Ruth Nelson, vocal solos by Miss Nina Hodgson and readings by Mrs. Allen. There were a few remarks of a farewell nature by the former pastor, Rev. C. D. Clarke, who is moving to Victoria. Rev. W. H. Pierce was among those speaking appreciatively of Mr. Clarke's work.

Mrs. Clavering was in general charge of the supper, receiving assistance from the members of the Ladies' Aid generally.

Prominent Canadian Newspaperman Tells Booth School and High School Students of His Travels

Thomas Wayling of Ottawa, one of Canada's best known newspapermen, during his stay in Prince Rupert yesterday in the course of a speaking tour, was heard in the morning by the pupils of the upper grades of Booth Memorial School and in the afternoon by the King Edward High School scholars. He spoke in his highly entertaining manner of the Coronation and of travels in Canada including the Mackenzie River country. The pupils were delighted. The speaker was briefly introduced at Booth School by the principal, Miss E. A. Mercer, and at King Edward High School by Arthur Sutton.

Synopsis of Land Act

PRE-EMPTIONS
VACANT, unreserved, surveyed Crown lands may be pre-empted by British subjects over 17 years of age, and by aliens on declaring intention to become British subjects, conditional upon residence, occupation and improvement.
Full information concerning pre-emptions is given in Bulletin No. 1, Land Series, "How to Pre-empt Land," copies of which can be obtained free of charge by addressing the Department of Lands, Victoria, B.C.; Bureau of Provincial Information, Victoria, or any Government Agent.
Records will be granted covering only land suitable for agricultural purposes within reasonable distance of road, school and marketing facilities and which is not timberland, i.e., carrying over 5,000 board feet per acre east of the Coast Range and 8,000 feet per acre west of that Range.
Applications for pre-emptions are to be addressed to the Land Commissioner of the Land Recording Division in which the land applied for is situated, on the forms obtained from the Commissioner.
Pre-emptions must be occupied for five years and improvements made to value of $10 per acre, including clearing and cultivating at least five acres, before a Crown Grant can be received.
Pre-emptions carrying part time conditions of occupation are also granted.

PURCHASE OR LEASE
Applications are received for purchase of vacant and unreserved Crown lands, not being timberland for agricultural purposes. Minimum price of first-class (arable) land is $5 per acre, and second-class (grazing) land, $2.50 per acre. Further information is given in Bulletin No. 1, Land Series, "Purchase and Lease of Crown Lands."
As a partial relief measure, reverted lands may be acquired by lease in ten equal instalments, with the first payment suspended for two years, provided taxes are paid when due and improvements are made during the first two years of not less than 10% of the appraised value.
Mill, factory or industrial sites on timber land, not exceeding 40 acres, may be purchased or leased, the conditions including payment of stumpage.
Unsurveyed areas, not exceeding 20 acres, may be leased as homesites, conditional upon a dwelling being erected in the first year, title being obtained after the first year. Improved conditions are required for the first two years of not less than 10% of the appraised value.
For grazing and industrial purposes areas not exceeding 40 acres may be leased by one person or a company.
Under the Grazing Act the Province is divided into grazing districts and the range administered under grazing regulations amended from time to time to meet varying conditions. Annual grazing permits are issued based on certain monthly rates per head of stock. Priority in grazing privileges is given to resident stock owners. Stock-owners may form associations for range management. Free or partially free permits available for settlers, campers and travellers, up to ten head.
