Qualified Today For Final In Scottish Cup Football Competition

EDINBURGH, April 3: (CP)-Two first half goals were sufficient to carry Aberdeen to the final of the Scottish Football Cup today. Playing here against the plucky Morton eleven, the Dons thrilled thirty thousand spectators with a fine brand of soccer to stave off the Second Division Club's late rallies.

Playing today in the penultimate round, Celtic scored one goal in each half to down Clyde two to nil.

Aberdeen and Celtic will meet in the final to be played at Ibrox Park, Glasgow.
