The quota for Area No. 3 this year is 24,600,000 pounds which, it is expected, will be exceeded by some 500,000 pounds by the time that fishing ends on Octo ber 19.

Capt. Ingvald Hansen, owner and skipper of the Seattle halibut schooner Pioneer, who is well. nown at Prince Rupert, is in nospital at Seward, Alaska, suffering from a wrenched back sustained while operating a winch aboard the boat at sea. The Pioneer made a special run in from the banks to Seward to put Capt. Hansen ashore.

The J. H. Carson Co. now has its first carload of dogfish liver, amounting to some fifteen tons, ready for shipment to Seattle whence it will be consigned east for use in the manufacture of animal food.
