THE SPY SCARE

Down east they seem to be worried over the possibility of some of the Japanese fishermen of this coast being Defeat Argos spies in disguise. We do not need to defend the Japanese but we cannot see what a spy could learn in this part of Important Games Played Saturday the country except that we are undefended, something which everybody knows. It does not need a spy to learn about the coast. Charts are available to anyone and it is no secret that we have here a heavy artillery battery without a gun and a local unit of the Royal Canadian Naval Rough Riders deleated Tolong in the Volunteer Reserve, also without any effective means of first game of the Ontario provincial defense. Was Speaker at Meeting of Christian Youth Society

Speaking at the regular meeting of the Christian Youth Society in First Baptist Church last night, Miss E. M. Earl gave in an extremely interesting manner her impressions of the Coronation and of the British Isles. She paid special mention to the grandeur of the Coronation procession and the hallowed associations of different places in England, Scotland and Ireland. She concluded in happy vein by commenting on what a great deal poets and writers have meant to the Old Land and how badly Canada need-Individual scoring was as follows: Golden Bears Win Undisputed ed such men to describe the beaut-Right-Yale Defeats Harvard ies of her mountain, lake and forest.
