From the Waterfront

The whole of yesterday's catch of herring taken by Captain R. Gammon of the Zenardi, seining in a pool with Capt. Martin Skog of the No. 9, was donated by the pool to the citizens. The Chief Skugaid, Capt. R. G. Lawson, proceeded to different berthing spaces on the waterfront and distributed the catch to all and sundry who cared to partake of the offering. The crew of the Skugaid heartily collaborated in the distribution, helping the recipients, mostly children, by donating bags, paper and otherwise to enable them to take the fish

Offices of the Alberta Wheat Pool's local elevator have received advice that the British motorship will be here between December 20 and the end of the year to load a full cargo of grain for United Kingdom or Continent. Last week the Daily News announced that the Moorby was coming.

Union steamer Catala, Capt. James Findlay, returned to port in good time at 9:30 this morning from Stewart, Anyox and other northern points and is sailing on time at 1 1:30 this afternoon for Vancouver and wayports.

Armour Salvage Co.'s service boat Pachena left at 10 o'clock last night for a week's hunting trip down the coast, having or. board Capt. Paul Armour, J. H Pillsbury, Dr. C. H. Bastin, G. A Bryant, W. O. Fulton, J. A. Lindsay and Rupert Fulton.

Charles Swanson Is Laid At Rest

Funeral of Well Known Local Longshoreman Took Place Saturday Afternoon

Quite a number of friends and acquaintances of deceased gathered at the chapel of the B.C. Undertakers Saturday afternoon to attend the funeral of the late Charles Swanson, well known local longshoreman, whose death occurred the latter part of last week. Rev. E. E. Brandt, pastor of First Baptist Church, officiated and Miss Lois Judge presided at the organ to accompany the hymns. Pallbearers were H. Smith, H. Hanson, S. Peterson, George Holmes, B. Carslon and George Brochu. There were a number of floral offerings.
