

FREE TRIP ROUND THE WORLD

We have just arranged with one of our clients to place forty-two lots on the market under exceptional advantages to the purchasers. The lots are some of the best in Sections 7 and 8. The prices are as low as any on the market, and the terms so easy—monthly—that anyone can buy. Along with this exceptional offer, each lot admits the purchaser to a drawing for a FREE TRIP ROUND THE WORLD. If you hold the lucky ticket the trip is yours; or you can surrender it for a cash consideration. The chances are good—one in forty-two. Come in and investigate.

BOGUS BILL SKILL

Secunder Took Ingenious Way of Getting Bogus Bill Cashed

Paris, Nov. 14.—The detective force of Passy is at present investigating the origin of a false 500-franc note which was handed in to the police office by the keeper of a wine shop, who had a strange story to tell about it. A well-dressed man walked down the Rue de Passy stepped aside sharply to allow a lady to pass, and in doing so broke the plate glass window of a wine shop with his elbow. The keeper of the wine shop was outside in an instant, and asked the man to give him compensation there and then. The man discussed the matter, and then said that he could not pay at once, but would pay in installments.

By this time a crowd had gathered, and onlookers took sides. One of them shouted to the wine shop keeper: "Why not search him to make sure if he cannot pay at once?" The man was thereupon dragged in to the shop, his pocket-case was seized, and the wine shop keeper gleefully held up a 500-franc note. The shop keeper quickly hunted about for change, and handed the man 450 francs, saying: "I am charging you only 50 francs for the plate glass, and you can think yourself lucky at that."

The man went away, complaining all the while, and hissed by some of the crowd. A few minutes later the wine shop keeper took the note to the bank. To his amazement the bank clerk refused it, and said it was a forged note.
