The date of the first publication of this notice is September 20, 1937.

TERRACE

Dr. Stanley Mills returned Friday night from Prince Rupert where he had been a patient at the Prince Rupert General Hospital, recovering from a dog bite.

Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Brooks arrived on Friday after a holiday in the south. Mr. and Mrs. Brooks plan to reside on Park Avenue.

On Friday night there was an Anglican whist party and social evening with ten tables, good prizes and refreshments. The affair was held in the Anglican Church Hall.

Mrs. C. J. Norrington of Prince Rupert, who has been visiting here with freinds, returned to the coast city.

Captain J. Bowen-Coldhurst, after spending some weeks at the Coldhurst summer home at Lakelse Lake, has returned to Sooke.

The Terrace village commissioners feel proud of the new concrete reservoir for the municipal water system which has recently been completed by Messrs Kirkpatrick. The new reservoir is a more business-like affair than the old one. Its gross capacity is 20,000 cubic feet.

Indian summer has prevailed during the past few days with bright sunshine, not too hot. At this season the mosquitoes have gone.

WAITED WITH LOADED GUN

Man Apperas in City Police Court This Afternoon on Charge Carrying Weapon With Intent

Charged with carrying offensive weapons with intent to injure, Gus Cardell was sentenced to three months imprisonment in city police court this afternoon. Following an altercation at Seal Cove Saturday evening, Cordell went to a house on Seventh Avenue East armed with a loaded 16-gauge shotgun. Police had been advised in the meantime and Corp. G. H. Soles, Constable A. Gaunt and Constable A. Hanford R.C.M.P. rode up in an automobile. One officer snatched the weapon from Cordell's shoulder while the other placed the man in the car. After being given the customary warning, Cordell is said to have told the police that he had been hit on the nose and was out for revenge.

NEW PARTY PREDICTED

Vandenburg Says Coalition of Democratic and Republican New Deal Opponents is Likely

WASHINGTON, D. C., Sept. 20—Senator Arthur H. Vandenburg of Michigan predicted at the week-end that a new party might make its appearance before the 1940 election consisting of a coalition of both Democratic and Republican opponents of the New Deal. Vandenburg has himself been often mentioned as a possible Republican presidential candidate in 1940.

BAR SILVER

NEW YORK: (CP) —Bar silver was unchanged at 44¾c per fine ounce on the New York metal market today.

Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Smail returned to the city on the Catala last evening from the south. Mrs. Smail has been spending some time in California and Mr. Smail went to Vancouver to meet her.

WHIFFLETS
From the Waterfront

Union steamer Catala, Capt. James Findlay, arrived in port at 7:45 last evening from the south and sailed a couple of hours later for Stewart, Anyox and other northern points whence she will return here southbound tomorrow. The vessel brought a fair-sized list of passengers.

The schooner Daly sold 26,000 pounds of halibut at Seattle Saturday to San Juan, receiving 11¾c and 11¼c. Three cod fishing vessels landed incidental small fares of halibut for which 14c was paid. Halibut landings at Seattle last week totalled 343,000 pounds of which 11,700 pounds was from Area No. 2, being caught incidental to cod fishing. A number of the big boats of the American fleet landed catches at northern points last week in order to get back to the fishing banks of Area No. 3 for an extra trip before the season closes.

Having broken her crankshaft in the north, the American halibut schooner Northern reached Seattle under tow at the end of the week. A new crankshaft is now being installed and the Northern expects to make another trip to the Area No. 3 fishing grounds before the season closes.

The Daily News has an audited circulation. Play safe!

BIG FIGHT PICTURES

Louis-Farr Films at Capitol—Fast Moving Comedy "Lady Be Careful" Is Feature Picture

Just twenty days after the actual fight took place in Yankee Stadium at New York, the moving pictures of the Joe Louis-Tommy Farr world's heavyweight championship boxing event are to be seen on the screen of the Capitol Theatre here at the first of this week. This is quick service for Northern British Columbia. The fight pictures run upwards of half an hour and include some slow motion views of most important action. Fans will thus be able to tell just how good Farr really is and whether or not, as some claim, he was robbed of the decision.

The feature offering for the first of the week is "Lady Be Careful," a lively comedy on sailors on leave in Panama City featuring Lew Ayres, Mary Carlisle, Lary Crabbe, Benny Baker and Grant Withers. Ayres plays the part of a timid gob whose inexperience with women makes him the butt of his crew mates. Crabbe is a marine with a string of broken hearts reaching half way round the world. The ludicrous events that ensue as the tables are turned from the basis of the action. Mary Carlisle plays the part of a glamorous blonde in the city. Ayres not only wins a bet that he can meet this girl but he wins the girl herself.
