Midnight Frolic Packs Theatre

Excellent Variety Program Presented New Year's Eve at Capitol

The Capitol Theatre was filled to capacity for the midnight frolic on Thursday night to welcome in the New Year. With Manager Dave Borland as master of ceremonies, an excellent variety program was presented from the stage. Promptly as midnight struck, little Miss Lois Thompson, as 1937, made her appearance on the stage in a tap dancing number. Noisemakers and favors were distributed and the New Year was enthusiastically welcomed in.

The stage program also included selections by the Annunciation School boys' harmonica band; dancing of the Highland Fling and Irish Jig by Miss Jean Watt, accompanied by Sam Leslie; Japanese tap dancing by Shuko Miwa and Haruko Shimizu; singing of "Cl Man River" by Dr. R. G. Large in costume; "Three Kentucky Scots," a burlesque number by Mario Bussanich, Bertie O'Neill and Bobby Hale. Excellent orchestral music was played from the pit by the Capitolians under direction of Dr. H. N. Brocklesby, featured numbers being selections from Gilbert & Sullivan and "Down South." There was also community singing and a cash drawing.

Ladies' Music Club Members At Hospital

Members of the Ladies' Music Club and assisting artists, led by the president, Mrs. Shelford Darton, paid their annual Yuletide visit yesterday to the Prince Rupert General Hospital to entertain the patients there. A very enjoyable program included three carols, "Adeste Fideles," "Holy Night" and "Hark the Herald Angels Sing" by the club; violin solos, "Adoration" (Borowski), "Trees" (Rasbach) and "Mighty Lak a Rose" (Nevin), Miss Nellie Lawrence; vocal solos, "The Gift," Mrs. S. D. Johnston; "A Polish Carol (Lezy), Mrs. J. H. Carson, and "The Holy City," A. J. Lancaster. Mrs. E. J. Smith was accompanist.

Following the recital, the members of the party were entertained at the Nurses' Home by Miss Jean Harrison R.N., lady superintendent, tea being daintily served.

Elks' New Year Dance Enjoyed

Was One of Several Successful Social Affairs Last Thursday Night

Among the several New Year's Eve functions which marked the passing of 1936 and the advent of 1937 in Prince Rupert was a highly enjoyable dance by the local Elks' Lodge. Some three hundred persons were in attendance, the event being a centre of attraction for the younger folk. At midnight noisemakers and novelties were distributed and pandemonium broke loose as the New Year was ushered in.

Dancing was in progress from 10 p.m. until 3:30 a.m. Sam Jurman was convener for the affair and Walter Smith was master of ceremonies. Ernest Wilding presided at the door.

WHIFFLETS From the Waterfront

Nelson Bros. Fisheries big seiners Western Spirit and Victorac arrived in port Saturday from Vancouver to make ready for herring seining in the local harbor for Tucks Inlet reduction plant which is expected to start grinding the fish this week. The herring are already running in the harbor and the harvest will start as soon as the outfit is ready. Preparation of nets has been under way for some time.

Union steamer Catala, Capt. John Muir, arrived in port at 8 o'clock last evening from the south and sailed at 9 p.m. for Port Simpson, Stewart, Anyox and other northern points. Returning on the Catala, which called at Ocean Falls northbound, were quite a number of local and district school teachers who have been spending the Christmas and New Year vacation season in the south. The vessel will be back here on Tuesday southbound.

With a capacity list of passengers, C. P. R. steamer Princess Norah, Capt. William Palmer, which is still the only passenger liner in regular service to Alaska owing to the American boats being tied up by the maritime workers' strike, arrived in port at 2:30 yesterday afternoon from Skagway and other northern points and sailed a couple of hours later for Vancouver. There were 194 passengers aboard the Princess Norah. Ten disembarked here while three took passage from here for the south.

Orange Ladies' Hogmanay Dance

Affair on New Year's Eve Attracted Large Crowd to Oddfellows' Hall

The hogmanay dance of the Ladies' Orange Benevolent Association on New Year's Eve drew a large crowd to the Oddfellows' Hall. Dancing commenced at 9:30 p.m. with Piper Sam Leslie leading the Grand March. The welcoming in of the New Year was observed in time-honored manner. There was music by a Scottish Orchestra and James Hadden was master of ceremonies. Tasty refreshments were served.

The committee in charge consisted of Mrs. A. MacDonald, Mrs. E. A. Evans, Mrs. James Krikevsky, Miss Hilda Beale and Mrs. George Geddes. Presiding at the door were Mrs. A. Guyan and Mrs. Barber.

Military Ball And At Home At New Year's Held

The annual New Year's Eve ball of the officers' mess of the 102nd Heavy Battery, Royal Canadian Artillery, proved a delightful affair for about 125 couples in attendance. The Armory was attractively decorated and the mingling of the new uniforms of the officers with the beautiful gowns of the ladies made a pretty scene. Music was by Mrs. J. S. Black's Orchestra and dancing was in full swing from 11 p.m. until 3 a.m. Delicious refreshments were served. A mess dinner preceded the dance.

New Year's afternoon the annual official "at home" of the battery officers was held, about three hundred persons calling.

GREAT TALE FOR SCREEN

"Anthony Adverse," Picturization Of Literary Classic, Is Presented Here

Hervey Allen's literary classic "Anthony Adverse," with its color and dramatic fire, comes to the screen of the Capitol Theatre here at the first of this week with Fredric March in the stellar role and beautiful Olivia de Havilland playing the leading feminine part.

The story is set in five countries on three continents. The scene opens in a great chateau in the beautiful countryside of France, sweeps through the Swiss and Italian Alps to the quaint city of Leghorn, Italy, then to Havana, Cuba, on to Africa and the great slave markets of other days, back to Italy and again to the court of Napoleon Bonaparte in France.

In dynamic action, intense drama, romance and thrilling adventure no story was ever better fitted for screen material. The presentation of portions of two operas adds to the general effectiveness. The cast, a tremendous one with no less than ninety-eight speaking parts and 2550 bit players, includes, besides March and Miss de Havilland, such notable figures as Edmund Gwenn, Claude Rains, Anita Louise, Gale Sondergaard, Steffi Duna, Donald Woods, Ralph Morgan, Henry O'Neill and Luis Alberni.

"I am resolved to grow fat and look young—"

This is the time of year for making resolutions. Now that curves are coming in again, you may agree with the "Maiden Queen" in Dryden's old play. And if you want the most heat for the least money, you may well say "I am resolved to buy Albert & McCaffery's coal."

For twenty years Albert & McCaffery's coal has been the best available. It is the best today. And if better could be got, we would have it. It gives you the most heat for the least money and that's what you want.

So, let your resolution be, the next time you need coal to phone 116 or 117 to Albert & McCaffery and order Nanaimo-Wellington for furnace and heater; Alberta-sootless for the kitchen range.

You deserve the best!
