WHIFFLETS

From the Waterfront

C.N.R. steamer Prince John, Capt. Neil McLean, arrived in port at 5:30 this morning from Vancouver via the Queen Charlotte Islands and will be here until 10:30 tomorrow when she will sail on her return south over the same route.

A. H. Robson, purser on the steamer Prince George, is at present ashore in Vancouver on his annual vacation. Fred Coram is relieving him as purser of the Prince George.

Bernice Palmer says . . .

One sad sight that you in Prince Rupert are spared is that of young boys in their teens—hobos—riding the freight trains. There is scarcely a day that the train in this country hasn't its quota of one or more youngsters—victims of broken homes, depression, and just youth—hobnobbing with seasoned veterans of the road. President Roosevelt has done much to help but there is a lot still to be done and it is the one big blot on our civilization today that we have not learned how to bridge the difference between want and plenty—that in a country, any country, with nature so lavish in her natural offerings, our youth should be compelled to wander from place to place seeking what is its due—honest labor and a happy home. The Civil Conservation Camps—the CCC—have helped many of our youth but there are many boys more who rebel at the very idea of such massing. It is these boys we see daily "riding the rods."

DRIFTWOOD

Driftwood of Life, just a boy. Somebody's son, somebody's joy. Roving over the world today. Not always a bed whereon to lay. Searching the world, far from home. Riding the rods, fighting alone. Somebody's boy with groping hand Seeking to find the Promised Land.

Somewhere a lonely mother is weeping. Wondering where her son is sleeping. Wondering if he has eaten today. Wondering why he ran away. Somewhere a mother is praying for you. Keeping her vigil the long night through. Waiting, watching the incoming tide That will bring her boy again to her side. Only driftwood riding the tide, Meeting life with youth's high

The Letter Box

NOT IN "WEBSTER"

Editor, Daily News:

In my letter that appeared in yesterday's issue your paper had changed the term "commercial swords" to "commercial interests" which had the effect of changing the whole meaning of my letter. Every investor and every laborer in the community has commercial interests but a "sword" is one who can outline a policy that will benefit the whole community without offending any law-abiding citizen and without harming those who are not law-abiding citizens.

Our politicians take the lead and hold out the "gimmee" hand to outsiders—gimme a railway, gimme a highway, a pulp mill, a hospital, etc. Our political leaders, both of the old school and the new, have called in outsiders to help us but they have never listened to able British politicians in our own community.

Our churches have called in evangelists to teach us the way but none of them have ever listened to a more able expounder of the Christian Faith in our own community.

They have called in scientists who have studied more of the pride. Pausing a moment, then drifting away. Into a harbor you'll drift someday. Oakland. CHEERIO!

science of grab-all-ogy than all the other scientists put together, who even went as far as to say, "The sun may have to give up some of its power," knowing full well that all power proceeds from the sun, but they have never listened to the "sword" of the sun in their own community.
