"PINAFORE" PRESENTED

Big Effort of Prince Rupert Operatic Society Marks New Entertainment Standard

Judging from all advance reports, the Prince Rupert Operatic Society's presentation tonight and tomorrow at the Capitol Theatre of Gilbert & Sullivan's two-act comic opera "H. M. S. Pinafore" will mark a high point in local entertainment effort. For months, under the direction of Nelson Allen, president and conductor of the Society, the cast has been rehearsing assiduously and, both from a musical and dramatic standpoint, is said to be in great form now for its public appearance in this ambitious undertaking.

With special stage settings, costuming, musical arrangements, lighting etc., the production will be along most finished lines. The Capitolians, under direction of Dr. H. N. Brocklesby, will also take part in the evening's program.

Apart from the fact that outstanding entertainment is being offered, it is pointed out that the presentation is being sponsored by the Prince Rupert Rotary Club and that the proceeds will go to the fund for the development of Morse Creek swimming pool.
