(Julia Arthur) SHOES

Are Here

First Shipment Just Arrived

Beautiful to Look at and Wonderful to Wear

Priced $6.00 and $6.50

L'AMILY SHOE STORE LTD

The Home of Good Shoes

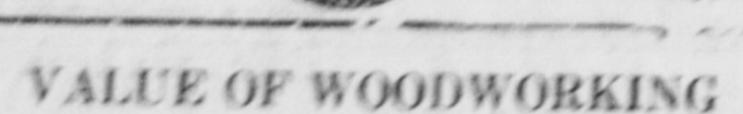

THE DAILY NEWS. PRINCE RUPERT - BRITISH COLUMBIA

Published Every Afternoon, Except Sunday, by Prince Rupert Daily News, Limited, Third Avenue

H F PULLEN - - - Managing-Editor

SUBSCRIPTION MATES City delivery, by carrier, yearly period, paid in advance Paid in advance, per week. Paid in advance, per month. By mail to all parts of British Columbia, the British Empire and United States, yearly period, paid in advance By mail to all other countries, per year Advertising and Circulation Telephone

DAILY KDITTON

Priday, October 8, 1987

Member of Audit Sureau of Circulations

News Department Telephone

Woodworking classes are about to start in the city for regard to China proper? Is it the by force and the other is by friend- hate you trade with you. In the cusable and unnecessary. young men. This is a splendid opportunity to learn an This argument cannot validly be But that means that you have fore cutting your life line with cease listening to the propaganda you might have been to the rest art that will be useful to them all through life. The fee used regarding Manchuria, let al- doomed yourself to live beside a life who would lead you into of us. Go back and be the kind of those who would lead you into of us. Go back and be the kind of those who would lead you into of us. Go back and be the kind of those who would lead you into of us. is very small considering the benefits received. Every one China proper, for when the huge perpetual enemy. But you man as he gets older feels the need of such training and vacuum of Manchuria was opened say, "When we get through with usually wishes he had had the opportunity when he was younger to acquire the art.

HEPBURN RE-ELECTED

Premier Mitchell Hepburn's re-election by a large sure of population lay? It was in Can you permanently hold down majority indicates that the people of Ontario still have confidence in him and his policies. We prophesied that he would be elected with a reduced majority but his following was reduced by only three.

Third party candidates made no showing. The Un- the densely populated soil of China a distance. But, if you should conited Farmer party elected only one member and the C.C.F. lost the one member they had in the last Legislature. This sounds the death knell of both United Farmer and Co- of China. The real reasons must ever China should be sufficiently operative Commonwealth in eastern Canada.

The Conservative leader having been defeated, it will devolve upon the Conservative members to select a new house leader who will probably become leader of the party to China." China has been chao- I am afraid that your leaders

THEATRE STRIKE

The brief tie-up of the local theatre brought home to many Prince Rupert people what a value it is to a city spoken out on this matter in the not certain, for China is going to have a good place of amusement. Many people were presence of officials in China and to draw it out and try to wear greatly disappointed at not being able to see the picturiz- have urged reform. The fact is that you down. You are headed for ation of the H. G. Wells' fantasia. That the Capitol is again catering to the entertainment of the public is a satisfactory outcome. It was feared that the strike might have been extended for some weeks.

ANNOUNCEMENT DENTIST - DR. J. F. MAGUINE

Has returned to the city and will resume his practice

Rooms 7, 8 and 9—SMITH BLOCK

NEW ROYAL HOTEL

J. Zarelli, Proprietor "A HOME AWAY FROM HOME"

Rates $1.00 up 50 Rooms Hot & Cold Water Prince Rupert, B.C. Phone 281 P.O. Box 196

Batisfaction Guaranteed famous Edson Alberta Coal Bulkley Valley Coal Vancouver Island Coal

PHONE: 58 and 558

PROMINENT EVENGERRY BESEECHES JAPAN

Continued from Page One

the whole of Asia. You have apparently misset that road and taken another.

Three Attitudes

There were three attributies your people could have taken. The first was to remain asmater. The second seeing statesmen have urged the give to China and the rest of Asia. with China. You have great gifts that the world and making provision for it. But China. That seems plain. million rather than the Japanese, sure of that, Did this not show where the presbe elsewhere.

Surplus Population

tic, no doubt about that, but she are leading you into a mad was dealing with five revolutions gamble. The future for you is in her national life in one gener- very precarious along the lines ation. Her officials have been cor- they are leading you, even if you

When this war broke they were to ouble to a sister nation. in the process of cleansing official You missed the turning of the life and were succeeding in a re- road. You should have taken the markable way. As for chaos there road of friendship and co-operahas been less chaos in the last two tion with China to your mutual years than in any perior of the last advantage. You could have had twenty-five. China was on the eve almost anything from China if of the greatest development in in- you had decided to be friends ternal unity and improvements of You; universities would have various kinds that this world has been filled with Chinese students, ever seen in any age. Your "mis- your factories would have been sion" has been badly timed. The Lumming to manufacture the raw fact is that your interference in aterials drawn from China and China's life is causing nothing but Asia, which you could have sechaos, nothing but diruption, cured on the basis of co-operanothing but hate and bitterness- tion. You could have lived toand the end is not yet. It is just gether as friends and neighbors, beginning. Are you not hindering each supplying the other's needs at every step the development of China? If you really want the development of China why did you not let her alone at the very moment that she was accomplishing most? If you reply that this is; temporary disorder, that order will later be brought into China, and you cite Korea and Manchuria as examples, I am afraid that I am not convinced. This is different. You are aiming a dart at the heart of a great nation. They may ac-live. They will, therefore, struggle against you, and they may wear you out even if it takes a century to the so. Besides, kaleidoscopic changes of events may take place, and they may find you at war with. say Russia, and then you have an enemy of four hundred millions of people at your very door-a people of wast resonnees and great vitality. her you prepared to live under was to so-operate on a friently hough the years? You may win beasis with China and thus help in in the present war but that does her development and your own. The not settle the matter. You will third was to have the relationship have to deal with a volcano of hate of antagonism to China and through that may blow you up. Besides. ther to the rest of Asia and possibly monestly at is mot so sure that you the world. The first was impossible. will win in this struggle especially You have apparently refused the er at be iong drawn out. Your ecsecond and you have taken the onomic structure is one of the most third. In this we feel that you have precarious of the world at the presdeeply erred. Many of your far- ent moment and could not stand a long drawn out war in China, plus second. Had you followed them perhaps the eco nomic withdrawal you would have had so much to of other nations through sympathy

Invading China's Still

the co-operation—they refused it. blind to the fact that these inci-wears. Did they? It is true that they have dents have grown out of one central

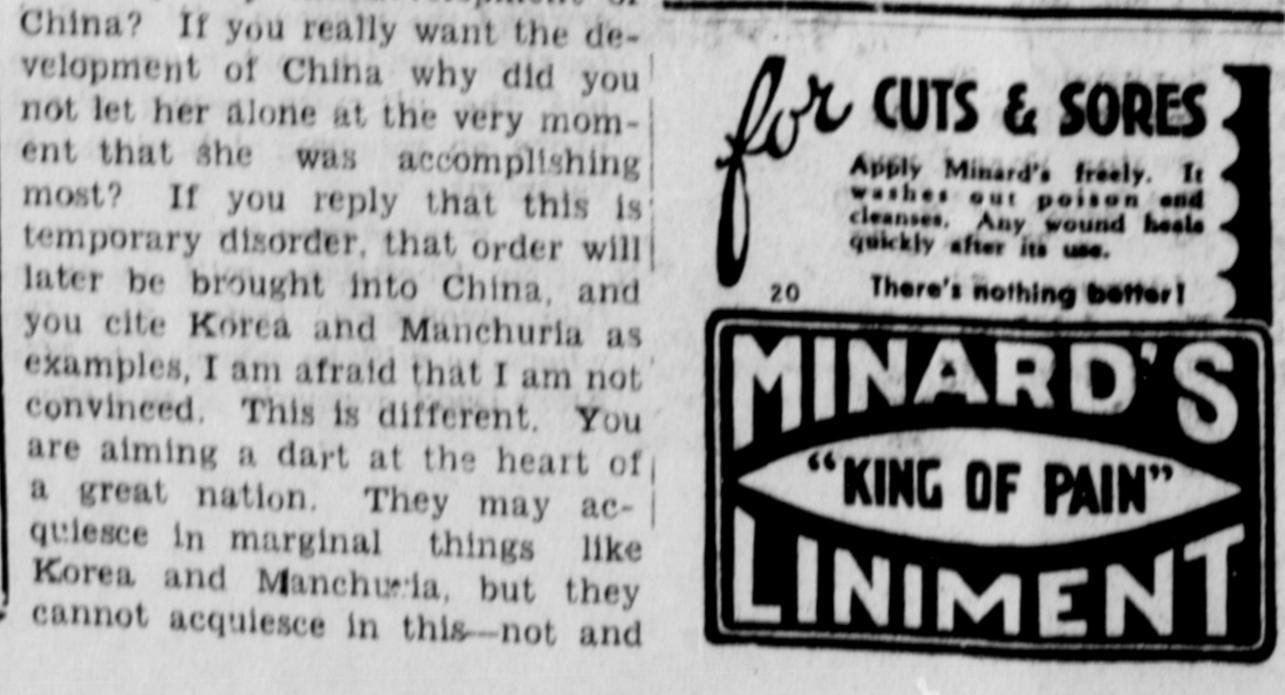

That is domination—the relation— As I see it your attitude towards saw in you their potential lead- Inexcusable ship of master and servant. In ac- China oscillates between contempt er. In their eyes you stood for I am sorry to have to write wound within me. Besides, notcepting such co-operation they and fear-contempt for her gov- the rights of Asia against the with such feeling but I am writ- ing I have said here is sever would have lost their soul as well ernment and people and fear of the encroachments of the West. Then ing to a friend and my words than what I would have said to as their country. Use your imag- astonishing progress that China is to their horror and dismay you have the wounds of disappoint the leaders of China a out well. ination a bit. Could you have hon- making. Your attitude of contempt began to devour piecemeal sover- ment in them. I had hoped for ness and wrongs in their natur-$5.00 estly respected China had she ac- is really outgrown. China is mak- eign portions of Asia itself. By another Japan to arise and lead al life. And more, I have just a cepted that co-operation? I am ing too much progress for the val- that act you lost the leadership us. This present militarist Japan turned from a mission to my on sure that your manhood says, 'No.' idity of that argument. It is the sec- of Asia. You had it in your hand is other than and different from beople in America and those that and that is really at the basis of and you threw it away when you the Japan of my dreams and have heard me know that I have Still, you say, there is the matter your present invasion. You seem grasped the sword and carved hopes. Besides, I have just come not spared my own people reput of the surplus population of Ja- to feel that if you are ever to get out living portions of the body out of China and have seen the ing their national sins. pan. Where are they to go? I control in China now is the time to of China. You could have possess | peasants torn from their peace. We are all in deep ned to think that you have a real point in do it lest China grow too strong, ed the soul of China in admiration ful villages. I have seen their writer along with the rest litthis matter of population and I, for All the other arguments seem to me and friendship, indeed all the blanched faces turned upward at and this is the point—the mind one, would advocate very strongly to be rationalisations. This is the rest of Asia, but you flung it the sky which was raining death international crime that a way the world taking this very seriously real reason you want control of away at the behest of your mili on them. They did not will this committed in the world today's can you honestly bring forward this. There are two ways you might led force. Your life line is trade people have no quarrel with these na by your people. It is a crin argument of population surplus in influence or control China, one is but you cannot make people who simple peasants. It is all so inex, against China, against internal about thirty years ago it was the China she will be helplessly in our Chinese people who poured into power and we shall not be afraid of Manchuria to the tune of thirty her impotent rage." I am not so

No Permanent Hold

China rather than in Japan. If four hundred millions of people? you could not send immigrants in- Don't point to India as an example. to the comparatively empty Man- It really isn't a parallel. Britain churia, could your peasants com- could lose India and she could go pete with the Chinese farmer on on more or less intact for she is at proper? I am afraid that you can- quer China now, and then if in the not use the population argument in future you should lose her, you the matter of the present invasion might lose yourself as well. For if strong to get her independence, You reply, "But China is chaotic, she would be strong enough to take her officials corrupt and it is our yours away for you are at her doors there has been reform through the trouble. And all the time you efforts of the Chinese themselves, are giving deep and permanent basis. That is not co-operation, keep the position clear.

Taken Wrong Turning

up to you and admired you and laws remain you must reap. tary leaders when they counsel and I am sure that your common the crime of the invasion of Chi.

needs but you are erecting military. If you point out the incidents of and each being enriched. Now mentary on this? A few decades ate? I do not believe it is I barriers between you and the rest the killing of your hationals in the you have chosen to live alongside ago Europe was using force on have talked with many responof the world that we cannot take north and the aerodrome incident of the hell out of which I have vast portions of the world and sible deaders of China and I an in Shanghai, my reply is that this just come—the hell of war, and now that sword is coming back convinced thatthey would wel-You reply that it was the recal- is deeply to be deplored and con- it will be a perpetual war, over upon them and they are on the come with both hands the half citrancy of China that prevented demned but really we must not be and covert, down through the verge of perishing by it. God still of friendship extended from inlives and-His Judgments know an, but they are prepared to reno East nor West and they are sist unto death your present at refused to acquiesce in the approp- fact, namely, you are invading I am afraid that you took the color-blind. Your nation too may titude and purposes. And world riation by Japan of vast portions China's soil. That is the hurt that wrong turning. The result has break itself upon the fact of God opinion is growing with them I of their land and the invasion of makes China lash back in such in- been disast ous already. I have For this is a world of moral con- believe I have voiced that my their sacred and immemorial rights. cidents. These incidents are really watched the change of attitude sequence and if you sow injustice inion. Hence my during to with China has refused that kind of not the cause of the present trouble, toward you through the East. and force you must reap, perhaps co-operation and frankly the world they have been caused by your in- There was a time when al- not today, perhaps not temorrow. If you say that I have lecture admires her for refusing on that vasion of China. I beg of you to most the whole of Asia looked but as surely as God lives and one side only, let me reply that

If you say that you are only the continuing hell of hate and of Japan you might have been oing what Europe has done, my war, rather listen to your wiser had you not missed the turning reply is that two dominations dolstatesmen who have counselled of the road and we will follow not make one liberty and the friendship with China and go "ou and receive from you. Not back to the turning of the road" can receive nothing. As long East wants liberty. Besides, isn't where you missed it and start 3 this wrong to China continue Europe just the Example of what again. Only a strong man ac- we can receive nothing. As long happens when you use force on knowledges a mistake. A weak this wrong to China continue ther people? It comes back on man never does. He continues we can receive from you neither you. The Master, whom I tried his bluster though he knows in thally, and if may be that we serve, said, "They that take wardly he is wrong. Be that hall be compelled to say, econbe sword shall perish by the strong man and regain your mor omically. And we say this with swo d." Isn't the situation of al leadership over our hearts by a heavy heart for we are saying Europe at the present time a com- a complete turning round. Too it to friends.

Crime of Invasion

I have not wanted to lecture h has been the outery of the deen

tional peace, against your own

RADIO

The Finest Entertainment Ever will be on the Air this Winter

BE READY WITH A NEW RADIO

Every season sees great forward strides in the technique of radio showmanship. Brighter shows; smarter shows; shows that move with a snap and sparkle that holds you enthralled for hours on end. New orchestras; new comedians; new dramatic highlights; new novelties in presentation; are waiting to enter your home. Give them the reception their talent and YOUR enjoyment demands . . . with a new Radio.

Leading makes to choose from. Small down payment. Easy terms.

Northern British Columbia Power Company Limited