Edmonton Police Get New Clothes

More Comfortable Attire for Constables and Officers of Alberta Capital

EDMONTON, Feb. 17: (CP)-De signed to give greater comfort to constables and officers, new uniforms have been ordered for Edmonton police. They will be ready | for the first sunny spring day. For the first time in this city' constables will wear revolver belts These, Chief A. G. Shute, explained, will lessen the strain on pockets previously burdened with the following articles:

A revolver, extra ammunition, a flashlight, a pair of handcuffs a whistle a wrist-chain and a

Main change for officers, inspectors and sergeants will be the ppen-neck tunic to replace the high-buttoned uniform they have been wearing many years.
