VIEWPOINT OF FRANCE

Yesterday we published without comment an article ing the viewpoint of General grancisco granco in regiving the viewpoint of General Francisco Franco in regard to the Spanish situation. Naturally we do not agree Takes Soccer Trophy from Torwith him. While we do not accept the doctrines of communism we agree that a country is entitled to any kind of government it wants. If it wants communistic government it is up to them. We take no exception to the kina of administration they have in Russia if they want it. the English Football Association They have a right to it even if it was brought about by for Canada's champion soccer means of terrible slaughter of millions of innocent people and is still kept going by suppressing with an iron hand all opposition. Evidently the people there are not ready tionals, who wound up the three for anything like responsible democratic government. For us it would be terrible but for them, if they want it. we are pleased if they have what they want. We have no right to dictate to them and they have no right to in terfere with us, as they at one time attempted to do.

To a very large extent opposition to our democracy comes from illiterate people who have studied little except red propaganda. We are sorry they do not know any TORONTO better, but there is hope for them that they will learn and their children will prove better educated and more widely Visiting English Team Gets Best read than their parents. In the meantime they have a right to their opinions and for the present they do no

General Franco doubtless means well. He has beer trained in a school that looks upon force as something to unch interval today the Torontoibe used for the betterment of mankind. Evidently wher cricketers had 100 runs for two he started the rebellion he did not expect the civil was to last long. He expected the Spanish people would rally Club. to his standard and that he would have a walkover much as did Mussolini and his Blackshirts in Italy. Possibly strongly in favor of the visitors, he realizes now that if he had allowed the Spaniards to form their own government and rule in their own way ets and the Toronto team replied they would have gradually evolved into a democracy with 189 runs for seven wickets. just as Russia is trying to do today. The difficulty that faced him and his followers was that if the "Reds," as TODAY'S BASEBALL he calls them, were allowed to get hold of the reins of government they might have been as bloodthirsty as were the Bolsheviks of Russia.

It is up to the nations that use common sense in their administration such as United States, Great Britain and the nations of the British Empire, the Scandinavian countries, and Switzerland to keep their feet, educate the neonle and teach the extremists that they are wrong. In this lies the hope of the world and the path of peace.

THE COLLAPSE OF HIGH HOPES

Editor, Daily News:-It was a cold night in December; the train was one-and-one-half hours late, making it around 2 a.m. While! waiting I chanced to get into conversation with a middle-aged man who was expecting his wife in on; the G.T.P., and settled in the Prince George country, amid the! high hopes of the past.

But how he talked of the country - its resources, the Grand Trunk, the Liberal party, and Sir Wilfred Laurier-when we were: WAX PAPERinterrupted by the whistle of the approaching train. As we wertiout the door, the headlight flooded the tracks and the platform, an old freight engine thundered past, followed by a long string of oiltanks, flat, stock and box cars. A trainman was waving a lantern! from the top of a box car, the fire! was flying from the brake shoes. the Conductor was waving a lantern from the side door of an old! baggage car, which was followed by a string of obsolete passenger equipment. When this tri-weekly it mixture did come to a halt, and the racket had ceased, we had clasped hands in our farewell grip, when I chanced to say "This is not the train you expectail during your pioneering days!" His hand tightened on mine as he said 'Wilfred Laurier would turn in his grave if he could realize this, and know that his party is now in power the third time sice he was oblidged to hand over his much loved enterprise to the enemy!" He turned from me to greet his wife, who was descending the steps of an old passenger car, which I boarded to start my journey to Prince Rupert, which was four divisions away. Owing to the early hour in the morning. taking a berth was out of the question but one very soon learned that it made no difference whether one took a drawing room a berth, or a seat in the day coach, as sleep was out of the rived on at midnight was ready it.
