Passing of Pat Burns

The late Senator Burns always was known to millions of people as "Pat." He seldom got "Mister Burns" from anyone. As to a title, it was wholly foreign to his nature. Pat Burns had a store in Prince Rupert—one of hundreds throughout the country—which was always well known for the quality of the products sold there. People who could afford to do so ran an account there. That was the type of business he did. He knew his public and they knew him and the result was he made a fortune. It was not luck that made him a great merchandiser. It was ability in merchandising.

Defence Approved

It is wonderful how easily and rapidly the defence plans of the federal government were adopted by Parliament. There was a little flurry caused by the opposition of the few C. C. F. members in the House, magnified by the newspapers, because of lack of other news material at the time. It was a very feeble gesture and did not represent by any means the general opinion of C. C. F. supporters. There were a few Liberals and Social Crediters who did not like the move but the opposition could not be considered more than a little flutter in the parliamentary dovecot. For six days the measure was before the House of Commons and now it is all ready for the Senate and the Governor General's signature.

HOSPITAL DISCUSSED

Board in Lengthy Session Last Night to Consider Offer of Sisters of St. Anne

The board of directors of the Prince Rupert General Hospital was in session last night for over three hours discussing the offer which has been made by the Sisters of St. Anne to take over the Prince Rupert General Hospital and build a new modern fireproof hospital at a cost of not less than $200,000.

No statement was made after the meeting except the comment that nothing definite had been arrived at.

In any case, it is not expected any final decision will be made by the board in view of a resolution which was passed at the recent annual meeting of the Prince Rupert General Hospital Association that "in the event of any person, firm or corporation coming forward with a proposal to erect and operate a new hospital, a special meeting be called within two weeks to consider such a proposal."

Whether or not the hospital board intends to make any recommendations in the matter is not known.

Tonight's train, due at 10:20, is reported one hour late.

OVERALL DEFICIT FOR CANADA IS CUT IN TWO DURING YEAR. DUNNING SHOWS IN BUDGET SPEECH TODAY.

$3,337,332,000 at an annual interest charge of $125,081,459 while indirect liabilities, including guaranteed bonds and debentures, amount to $1,003,000,000.

Recovery Realized

Mr. Dunning said that the expectation voiced last year of a strengthening and broadening of the recovery movement had been "amply realized." He said: "Since 1929 no New Year dawned with greater promise for Canada." Newsprint and mineral production had reached new high marks. Agricultural production had dropped but seventeen percent. However, there had been an improvement in prices and the farmer was slightly better off. On the other hand, construction activity had been less than in 1936 and employment figures were disheartening. Statisticians had estimated the national income for 1936 $4,520,000,000 as compared with $4,094,000,000 in 1935.

Mr. Dunning warned that there was still a great distance to travel along the road to recovery and that "there is more than a suggestion of a mentality such as led to the deplorable excesses of the late twenties."

Provinces Need Help

"Revenue raising powers assigned to the provinces do not appear to be commensurate with the responsibilities which they are given, or which they have assumed in an age of increasing provision for governmental social services," the minister of finance said.

"It is a basic principle that a government should be able to stand financially on its own feet—that it should itself be responsible for raising revenue necessary to meet its own needs. I look, therefore, with great confidence to results of an investigation into this whole problem to be made by a royal commission which is to be appointed. If this investigation and report are as competent, as impartial and as constructive as the occasion demands, they may well serve to point the way to such action as to make 1937 as significant in Canadian history as the year 1867."

Opposed to Speculation

Warning to stock market operators against further development of current speculative fever was sounded by Mr. Dunning in the budget speech. If carried further, false standards of value and unbalanced development would result with their "inevitable aftermath." Full co-operation of stock exchanges and banking institutions would be necessary to regulate the flow of credit into speculative channels in order to prevent a new disaster. Some contraction of credit might be necessary to prevent excesses in the rising tide of Canadian business activity sooner than many people expect at the moment, he said.

"The control of the volume of money and credit with a view to mitigating the extremes of booms and depressions is one of the primary functions of a central bank," he said. "The easy money policy which has been followed in the recent past is, in my opinion, an illustration of appropriate action in time of depression. There will come a time, however, and it may come more quickly than many of us expect, when precisely the opposite policy will have to be followed if the best interests of the country are to be served."

Weather Ideal

Hill conditions were slow but the weather was ideal with bright sunshine and there was a record crowd to witness the contests.

There were more competitions than were ever put on before by the Omineca Ski Club and competition was very keen among the record number of contestants.

Miss Ruth Trousdell of Burns Lake was crowned "Queen of the Snows" at the Grand Ball which wound up the tournament on Monday night.

The scene now moves to Smithers where the competitors will take part in the tournament that will start here on Thursday and continue over Friday with a Grand Ball and the crowning of the Carnival King on Friday night.

Neil Cameron Defeats Charlie Balagno 500 to 443

The second game of the city billiard championship, sponsored by the Canadian Legion, took place last evening with Neil Cameron, present holder of the trophy, winning from Charlie Balagno by 500 to 443.

The first half was rather slow although even, and at the interval Cameron was leading by only 23 points, the scores being: Cameron 253, Balagno 230.

The second half found Cameron pulling ahead with a 22, a 29, a 20 and a 26. The balls were running well for him and he was about a hundred ahead when at last Balagno got going and ran up a fine break of 38. The issue was never in doubt, however, and Cameron won as slated.

Balagno, who had not played since the last city championship, showed how he was handicapped by lack of practice. His losing hazards, usually his most reliable shot, were not scoring. Cameron was fair, and produced some timely calculated canons.

The series continues on Friday evening when Cameron and Don Brown meet. Earlier in the week Brown beat Percy Tinker 500 to 265.

To add interest to the series it has been planned that each player plays each of the other players so that the series is by no means decided yet.

There was an interested attendance last night of followers of the "green table" game. Jack Allen was referee and George Dawes marker.

BRIDGE IS TIED AGAIN

Play-Off Between Grotto And Musketeers For Second Half Honors Needed

In the final postponed fixture of the second half of the Prince Rupert Bridge League schedule, Musketeers defeated Ramblers by a score of 6 to 3 last night, thus tying up the standing with the Grotto and making a play-off necessary to break the deadlock. The date of this play-off between the Musketeers and the Grotto has yet to be set. Should the Musketeers win, it will settle the season's honors as they were winners of the first half. Should the Grotto win, however, there would have to be another play-off to decide the 1936-37 season championship.
