Saskatchewan he found was troubled over the drought which had ruined the crops in much of the southern part of the prairies. Manitoba too was very apprehensive for the future but was cheered by the news that a new rustresisting wheat had been developed and to this they looked for salvation for their wheat growers. Mining development in the northern Noranda mines had been developed and although the Noranda had

Church Ladies' Aid Yesterday

The United Church Ladies' Aid tea and fashion show held by Annette's in the Boston Hall yesterday afternoon proved quite a social and spring flowers, was filled with Detroit. 'a keenly interested and appreciative crowd of ladies.

During the serving of afternoon tea vocal solos were much enjoyed. Those contributing were Mrs. R. G. Large, Mrs. J. H. McLeod and Miss Wheatley, accompanied by Miss S. Olafson and Mrs. Riddell, This was ship. followed by a fine display of the latest fashions as shown by Annette's-suits and coats, afternoon, and evening dresses and wraps. Those acting as mannequins were Mrs. B. Windle, Mrs. A. E. Dickens, Mrs. Owens, Mrs. T. Fraser and the Misses E. Wilson, M. Miller, B. Jensen, R. Stromdahl, E. Davies; and R. Krikevsky. Softly played piano selections by Miss V. Feero added much to the charm of the modelling.

"Annette" (Mrs. Stone) was presented with a lovely spray of tulips! by the president of the Ladies' Aid, Mrs. J. Clavring, in appreciation of her efforts. Also daffodils were presented to Miss Feero.

Mrs. Clavring was general convener of the affair and those in charge of the afternoon tea were Mrs. J. Krikevsky, Mrs. F. M. Davis, Mrs. N. Thomas and Mrs. J. S. Ir-1 vine. Serviteurs were Mrs. M. ### Tells Why He Is Opposed To Cash Allowance

OTTAWA, April 9:- In announcing to the House of Commons that he could not approve the proposal of giving special cash allowances over and above ordinary relief to unemployed war veterans, Hon. C. G. Power, minister of pensions, told Parliament that care of war veterans and their dependents was already costing the government $60,000,000 per year. Major Power said that he would not be opposed! This advertisement is not pubto a grant being made to help in lished or displayed by the Liproving employment for war veter- | quor Control Board or by the ans but he could not approve the Government of British Columbia. cash allowance idea as it would open the way for general pensions for all Canadians who had been in . uniform during the last war.

Howard Green, Conservative member for Vancouver South, and Grant McNeill, C. C. F. member for Vancouver North, were among those who criticized the stand of Major Power. A. W. Neill, Independent member for Comox-Alberni, however, supported Major Power, pointing out that he had been very active during the past fifteen years in fighting for the interests of exservice men.
