DOWN THE ALLEY

News and Views of the Rupert Bowling Front

The league leading Royals slipped considerably in their clash with 35 Taxi this week and lost three in a row to Al French and his boys but, in looking over the score records, I found that the Hotel men had to accept low score for the first two games which lost them at least one game. Eddie Smith's unavoidable absence was a blow to his team and, of course, Al French was going strong for the Taximen and put the game on ice. So the final outcome of this half is still doubtful although I still favor the Royals if Smitty can turn out for the rest of the half.

The ladies take their bowling seriously, and according to Red Young, are always on time, getting their games started promptly (a real virtue in Red's eyes). Allan Davies is a real help to the ladies' loop. He is always on the job as marker and I understand his salary will be doubled for the second half. The Rangers still top of the list but, ladies being built that way, the other teams are not giving up without a real battle.

The turkey shoots are just about ready to start. In fact one has been almost completed, and Ellis Morris was smacking his lips after putting in a pretty good score. One can just picture Ellis carving the bird and hiding a tasty bit of the breast under the sausage meat where no one would notice it. Well, Ellis old boy, if I drop in on you unexpectedly, I'll know just where to look for that tid-bit, that is, providing you win the prize. Yes sir, when it comes to eating turkey, my name is "Wimpy."

Last Friday night, Percy MacIntosh offered to bet on his C.N.R.A. boys against Pioneer Laundry and being an obliging chappie, I took him up but poor Percy discovered he had left his cash in his other pants (he's lucky to have two pairs these days).

And the same night Dave Borland said to me, "Hey Sloper, put in big head lines that the Gyro beat the Laundry 2 to 1, so now I'm happy. I was paired against Vic Houston and boy, did I sock it to him, it sure gives me great pleasure to beat HIM."

Edward John Smith and wife, Patricia, are the proud parents of a bouncing beautiful babe. Mother and father are progressing nicely. Congratulations, Eddie and Pat, but condolences in the early hours when baby wants a bottle or sum-pin'.

In the Commercial League on Thursday night, the league leading C.N.R.A. No. 2 took two games from second place Rupert Motors. Houston lost the first game for Rupert Motors, shooting an 88, which put the game on ice for the railway men, the second game was a tie which the Motorites eventually won

Public Works On Islands Subject Of House Query

Leslie Eyres, Conservative member for Chilliwack, has inquired in the Legislature as to the position held by A. L. Mallory of Port Clements in the service of the provincial Department of Public Works on the Queen Charlotte Islands. Mr. Eyres has also asked how many trucks are in use by the government in the Queen Charlotte Islands, how many were purchased in 1937 and from what agent or agents they were purchased.

and C.N. won the last game by one point which was a tough game to lose. However, it's all in the game and good luck to the winners who now have a strangle hold on first place.
