Moving in Right Direction

Evidently the Peace River people are moving in the right direction in discussing various angles to this railway problem. They will find Prince Rupert ready to back them in any reasonable propsal they may make. Possibly this coming fall it may be possible for representatives of Prince Rupert and Peace River people to meet again and formulate a plan of campaign for the coming winter in order to force to the front the need of the railway and bring pressure to bear to get the connection between Peace River and Prince Rupert made.
