Discuss Night Police Patrol

Junior Chamber of Commerce Wonders if This is Being Carried Out Adequately

The subject of adequate policing of the city at night came up for discussion last night at the regular monthly dinner meeting of the Junior Section of the Prince Rupert Chamber of Commerce. The opinion was that an edequate night patrol! was even more important than day patrol. The recent entering of the Bank of Montreal was referred to as a suggstion of what might happen if there was not an adequate night patrol.

Fascists Are Guilty Of Submarine Piracy

Another Demand Made For Reparations as Result of Sinking of Two Ships—Conference on Mediterranean Situation to be Held Friday

MOSCOW, Sept. 8: (CP)—The Red Army's official newspaper served notice today that the Soviet government will use force "to call Italian sea pirates to their responsibility" if peaceful moves fail. It said the goveernment was determined to obtain redress from Italy for the sinking of two Soviet ships.

ROME, Sept. 8: (CP)—The Soviet government told tions which had been critcized by Italy today that the Fascist answer to charges that Italian a submarines had sunk two Russian ships in the Mediterranean was unsatisfactory and repeated the grave accusation made in the original note. The second note is more terse than the first which demanded that the "intolerable situation" in the Mediter-

Montreal Man Arraigned on Charges of Harribly Abusing Boy Who Was in His Care

MONTREAL, Sept. 8: (CP) -Fatherless Freddie Brown of Toronto, his body splotched with burns and bruises, was recovering under medical care today as police prepared to arraign a Russian named Alexis Winslow on charges of torturing the nineyear-old boy. The youngster's feet had been seared with a heated fork, police said, and his tongue and mouth burned with acid while he lived with Alexis, a supposed friend of the family, who brought him here from Toronto to "better his education."

Queen Charlottes Mourn Passing Of Mrs. G. A. Charter

QUEEN CHARLOTTE CITY, Sept. 8:-The residents of Queen Charlotte City and the natives of Skidegate Mission owe an unpayable debt to Mrs. G. A. Charter, who passed away recently in Vancouver. During her stay at Queen Charlotte which ended in June of this year, Mrs. Charter gave herself without reserve to both white and Indian patients. All who entered the hospital there were treated with unselfish devotion. She cared for her patients as a mother does for her children.

Mrs. Charter was also a great social worker and a loyal church worshipper.
