His Rendezvous—Death

Looking forward with eagerness to his take-off on an attempted double flight across the Atlantic is Govind P. Nair, 32-year-old Indian flier, as he stands on the flying field at Croydon, Eng., wearing a garland presented by an admirer. A few hours later he was dead. After a shaky start, he crashed at Rouen, France, in attempting to land.

SMITHERS

Caused By Sudden Deaths of Two Well Known Young Women

SMITHERS, Dec. 1:- The people of this town received a second severe shock within the period of one week when they learned on Wednesday morning last of the passing of Mrs. Shirley Preston who had Bull Harbor-Overcast, misty, died very suddenly in the local

She developed pneumonia from which she failed to make any recovery.

Deceased was the daughter of Emery Barger, well known farmer of the Telkwa district, and grew up in this district where she had a host of friends, having been very active in all the social activities of the district in which she had lived.

She became the bride of Shirley Preston, the provincial agriculturist at Smithers, only two months ago and they established their home in Smithers immediately after.

Coming immediately after the death of Mrs. Cecil Muirhead, who had also just come to Smithers from Telkwa to make her home, the people of both Smithers and Telkwa, districts are visibly affected by the loss of two young and popular ladies whose activities in all affairs relating to the progress of the valley will be greatly missed. The sympathy of the residents of the entire valley are extended to the grieving husband and the immediate family of the deceased.

Mrs. Preston was 21 years of age and leaves, besides her husband, her father and brothers and sisters who are at Telkwa.
