THE INSPIRATION OF A MAN

The value of the supreme man at the supreme moment cannot be calculated. He can change a losing cause into a triumphant victory by the inspiration of his presence.

A month ago the Liberal party in Ontario seemed dead. The Conservative sweep in the Federal elections had apparently affected the very atmosphere of provincial politics. And in the hour of darkness, when the hopes of the Ontario Liberals were dimmest, the supreme man came forward.

Newton Wesley Rowell is his name, a man much loved and honored by all who knew him. For years he has been one of the leaders at the Ontario bar. Quiet refinement of bearing and culture, such as his are so, infrequent on the hustings, that politics and N. W. Rowell were not often coupled together in the popular imagination.

His exceptional gifts for organization, for oratory of the better kind and his high character, won for him the offer of the paid secretaryship of the Layman's Missionary Movement in Canada. The salary offered, $15,000 a year, was an indication of the value that was placed on his services in a cause where high salaries are not customary.

With the acceptance of the Liberal leadership by Mr. Rowell, the Liberal party in Ontario has undergone a resurrection. Thousands of good men who had previously kept out of politics have followed him into the fray with enthusiasm. The financial sacrifice demanded of him is greater than the financial sacrifice demanded by the offer of the Layman's Missionary secretaryship. But it is with such fervor and zeal and inspiring devotion that he has made missionary enterprise a force in the civilizing of the world, that Newton Wesley Rowell has embarked upon the great task of leading the Liberal party in Ontario. Some cheap critics have already sneered at his programme of social reforms as a "goody-goody" programme. Ontario has the reputation of being peopled with "goody-goody" people.

Already it looks as if the impossible is to be accomplished—as it so often has been accomplished by the supreme man at the supreme moment—and that on December 11th Ontario will go Liberal again.

TABLOID EDITORIALS.

Mr. H. S. Clements, in a recent speech at Victoria, announced that he would press for a more adequate fishery protection service, saying that "millions of dollars had been lost to the assets of Canada" through insufficient protection.

Mr. Clements is mistaken. The "millions of millions of dollars" have been lost owing to the Canadian fishermen having no adequate market for his fish.

An excellent suggestion is made by the Omineca Herald for reform in the mining law to allow the prospector one clear year from the first of January following his date of staking in which to do his first year's assessment work. The present system works a hardship on the prospector who stakes in unfrequented localities in the midsummer months, and has either to come back quickly after recording or make an early visit in the following spring.

FIRST: "CATCH YOUR PRINTER"

DIRECTIONS FOR COOKING A HARE:
FIRST:—"CATCH YOUR HARE"

To produce good printing you must "first catch your printer." You can't get good printing from a poor printer, even if he work with never so good an equipment. If he lacks the "knack," the trained taste, the single-minded fondness for his work which real printers have, he will do poor printing for you. If he has all of these, and in addition to them adequate modern equipment, your printing will have distinction, salesmanship, the lure of type-beauty.

As this office produces good printing you may infer the presence of a good printer—who is "catchable."
