DAILY EDITION. THURSDAY, NOV. 30

AN UNSATISFACTORY INQUIRY

Unknown and friendless as he is, John Crawford, who met his death by falling off the Second Ave. sidewalk last Saturday night, deserves that a more searching inquiry than has been made should be made into the causes that led to his death.

Anybody who saw his crushed skull, knew that he died of his injuries. It requires no doctor or official board to announce that fact. The question that demands an answer is: "How did he come to walk off the sidewalk to his death?"

There are two theories to his death, and a third that is a combination of the two. One is that he walked over the sidewalk because it was dark, and the corner was unprotected; the other is that he was intoxicated, and did not know what he was doing.

If the first theory was correct, then it was a matter for a coroner's jury to decide whether or not a charge should lie against the City authorities who contributed to his death by leaving that corner unprotected.

If the second theory is correct then it is a matter for a coroner's jury to decide whether or not a verdict should be returned fixing the responsibility on the hotel keeper who permitted the man to leave his hotel in an irresponsible condition.

The decision made to hold a "police inquiry" instead of a public inquest, is not satisfactory. The safety of every man, woman and child who uses the streets is menaced by the failure to definitely establish the causes that led to John Crawford's death.

TABLOID EDITORIALS

Something should be done to take care of that poor old lady who advertises in the Empire day after day that she lost a purse containing a big roll of bills on the previous day. It was bad enough to lose a wad the first day. It was a coincidence to repeat the misfortune on the following day. But it is an expensive habit for the poor old lady to keep on losing a large roll of bills day after day for three weeks.

Before acting on the suggestion to increase the City Solicitor's salary from $150 to $250 a month, wouldn't it be wiser to see how the contractors' suits fare. This is fair to the City Solicitor. A good solicitor is not dear at $250 a month.

Someone has played a joke on the Empire. Yesterday it reprinted a portion of the story of the pioneer days, especially written for the Daily News by Mr. Thos. Deasy of Massett. The Empire copied it from a Kamloops paper in apparent ignorance of the fact that it originated in the columns of the News two months ago.

FIRST: "CATCH YOUR PRINTER"

DIRECTIONS FOR COOKING A HARE: FIRST—"CATCH YOUR HARE"

To produce good printing you must "first catch your good printer. . . You can't get good printing from a poor printer, even if he work with never so good an equipment. If he lacks the "knack," the trained taste, the single-minded fondness for his work which real printers have, he will do poor printing for you. If he has all of these, and in addition to them adequate modern equipment, your printing will have distinction, salesmanship, the lure of type-beauty.

As this office produces good printing you may "infer the presence of a good printer—who is "catchable."
