"COLDS" RUN RIOT IN COLD WEATHER

Keep fit. For constipation may lower resistance to "colds." Relieve constipation with Kellogg's ALL-BRAN. This food absorbs water and softens like a sponge—forms a soft mass—aids elimination.

Eat two table-spoonfuls daily. Serve as a cereal with milk, or in recipes. At all grocers.

Excursion From Interior Coming

Pre-Christmas Visitors Due Tonight and Will Return Either Wednesday or Friday

Tonight's train, due from the East at 11 o'clock, was reported this morning to be on time. It is bringing in the annual pre-Christmas excursion of interior people from points along the line as far East as Prince George. Their bargain fare tickets call for return to the interior on either Wednesday or Friday evening's train.

Bernice Palmer says . . .

Even the youngsters are garden-minded here. My young son bought a package of cucumber seeds and proudly announced he was going to be able to go into the yard and pick his own dill pickles. I once planted dill seeds with the same hopes! . . . Oh well, one lives and learns . . . Speaking of learning, you can

Twenty-Five Years Ago

December 7, 1912

Judge F. McB. Young and Lionel Crippen had a rather arduous all night experience while they were towing Major George E. Gibson's boat to Digby Island to be beached or the winter. Crippen was aboard Major Gibson's boat which broke away from the judge's boat in the stormy weather. The judge then went on the rocks and Crippen was adrift without any motive power. Finally an Indian boat rescued Crippen. Several hours later the judge's boat was successfully re-floated.

The Railway Employees' Association has been organized in Prince Rupert with Len Bell as president and Paul Muldner as secretary.

Word has been received in Prince Rupert of a rich strike of copper and galena being made on the Red Reef mining property about half a mile from Stewart.

WHIFFLETS From the Waterfront

Late this trip in returning from the north, Union steamer Catala, Capt. John Muir, is due at 4 o'clock this afternoon from Stewart, Anyox and other points. The vessel was at Wales Island at 8 o'clock this morning loading canned salmon and at Port Simpson at 1 p.m.

Northland Transportation Co.'s steamer North Sea, Capt. A. W. Nickerson, arrived in port at 12:30 midnight last night from Alaska and, after discharging five carloads of fish from Ketchikan for transshipment East over Canadian National Railways, sailed early this morning in continuation of her voyage to Seattle.

COPS STOP RECEPTION SUDBURY, Ont., Dec. 7: (CP)—A wedding reception in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Mike Chuck was interrupted when police seized seven quarts of liquor and 26 cases of beer and arrested Chuck on a charge of having liquor in a public place.

PLAYS IN IRELAND MORROSBURG, Ont., Dec. 7: (CP)—Ralph Ashton, Morrisburg youth, has signed a contract to appear on the stage with an English repertory company which recently opened a season in Ireland. Ashton left here for England in September.
