CLEANING UP SEED

Final Shipments of Timothy Made From Bulkley Valley

SMITHERS, Feb. 22.—The last of the Bulkley Valley timothy seed was shipped from the seed cleaning plant of Jack McNeil and Emery Barger at Smithers when two carloads rolled out on Wednesday last.

This plant has handled much more seed this year than it did last and the last shipment was the end of 160 tons for this season.

Most of this seed was sold at a price of 5½¢ which was quite satisfactory but not as good as had been hoped for by the farmers earlier in the season.

The co-operative seed growers' plant at Telkwa is also handling a large quantity of seed as the crop was fairly heavy in the Bulkley Valley last year and the returns will mean a lot to the farmers of this district.

Bulkley Valley timothy seed is in a class by itself and is always in good demand by the seed houses throughout Canada.

Man in the Moon

There's the ancient legend of the two pipe-smokers in the opium den.

One dreamy gent said casually: "I've just decided to buy all the diamond and emerald mines in the world."

The party of the second part considered this seriously for a few moments, and then murmured softly: "I don't know that I care to sell."

WHIFFLETS From the Waterfront

Improvements on Steamer Cardena—Steamer Prince Rupert on Pontoons—Alberni to be Commissioned in Two Weeks.

Union steamer Cardena, Capt. James Findlay, taking the place of three weeks in Vancouver for two overhauls, arrived in port at 7:30 last evening from the south and sailed at 9 p.m. for Port Simpson, Stewart, Anyox and other northern points whence she is due back here Tuesday morning southbound. The Cardena is just fresh from her annual overhaul in the course of which a notable improvement to be made was in the first class smoking room which has been completely repanned in lighter woods, windows being enlarged and lowered and handsome new furnishing installed.

Southbound from Skagway to Vancouver, C. P. R. steamer Princess Norah, Capt. William Palmer, arrived in port at 3:30 yesterday afternoon from the north and sailed at 5 p.m. for the south. The vessel had a total of 54 passengers. Four disembarked here and six took passage at this port for the south. With the American boats back in service to Alaska again following the termination of the maritime workers' strike, the pressure of passenger business has been relieved as far as the Princess Norah is concerned. The passenger movement south is also falling off. The Princess Norah will be here Friday morning on her next northbound voyage.

C. Clarke and W. Hussey, members of the crew of the Vancouver halibut boat Western Fisher, which sank in Grenville Channel last week and is now undergoing repairs here after being salvaged, sailed yesterday afternoon on the Princess Norah for Vancouver. Capt. Robert Hobbs, owner and skipper of the Western Fisher, is staying here with the vessel while repairs are in progress.

Capt. W. H. Barton, who has been in command of one of the United States lighthouse tenders, operating out of Ketchikan, was a passenger aboard the Princess Norah yesterday afternoon going through to San Francisco, having been transferred to that port.

C. N. R. steamer Prince Rupert is now on the pontoons at the local dry dock for usual hull work in the course of her annual overhaul. Repair work on the vessel's engines is also proceeding and she will be in the yard for several weeks.

Expectation is that the new lighthouse tender Alberni will be ready in about two weeks to be commissioned in her service out of this port. Overhaul of the vessel following her long voyage out from the Atlantic Coast is now proceeding.

Making her first call here since last October before the long maritime workers' strike, Northland Transportation Co.'s motorship Northland, Capt. Len Williams, arrived in port at 7 o'clock this morning from Ketchikan and, after discharging eight carloads of frozen halibut and salmon for transshipment East over Canadian National Railways, sailed this afternoon in continuation of her voyage to Seattle.

The motor vessel Einar Beyer arrived in port Saturday afternoon from Ketchikan and, after discharging one carload of mild cured salmon in tins for transshipment East over Canadian National Railways, sailed in the evening on her return to Ketchikan.

KITWANGA REUNION

Fifty Natives From Kitwanga And Kitzegukla Pay Visit

During the past week the interior native village of Kitwanga was visited by about fifty natives from Kitwango and Kitzegukla. The visitors were met and escorted to the Church Army Hall where the official welcome took place. Addresses were given by several of the elders.

On Sunday a special service was held in St. Paul's Anglican Church. The church was so crowded that many had to stand. Members of the Kitwango Army were enrolled by Rev. B. Shearman. The Kitwango Ladies' White Cross members were then enrolled. Following the enrollment Mr. Shearman gave an inspiring address. Mr. Ryan and Mr. Bright assisted at the service. The choir, under the able leadership of Solomon Bryant, rendered in a decidedly efficient manner the anthem "O Praise God in His Holiness." Mrs. Sampare was a capable organist. Following the service, several Kitwango children were baptized. A large Bible was presented to the Kitwango Church officers for use in the St. Mark's Church at Kitwango.

In the evening the Church Army Hall was crowded, when a special service was celebrated. A visitor from Kitzegukla gave an address also Mr. Bright of Kitwanga. Mr. Shearman spoke on the alphabet—A to Z. Then anthems were sung by the local and visiting choirs. Again Solomon Bryant wielded the baton cleverly. Each time the choir sings there is improvement to be noted. Mrs. Sampare was at the organ.

On Monday the Kitwanga White Cross Society entertained the visitors to a banquet prior to their departure on Tuesday.

On Sunday (yesterday) the church council met under the presidency of Rev. B. Shearman to consider the matter of adding a vestry to the church and other additions. Lately the accommodation has been altogether inadequate.

The British Color Council has adopted 10 special Coronation colors, the chief of which are Coronation Red and Coronation Blue.

THIS FILM SPECTACLE

The Green Pastures Coming To Screen of Capitol Theatre At First of This Week

Said to be one of the most inspiring spectacles that has ever been screened, "Green Pastures," picturization of the stage play of the same name, which has been called "America's best loved drama," comes to the screen of the Capitol Theatre as the feature offering at the first of this week. The story, replete with gigantic sets and beautiful backgrounds, presents a primitive conception of the Bible and its characters and is something distinctly novel in the way of entertainment. Although there is due reverence, there is also said to be delightful humor. The characterizations of Biblical figures and the scenic effects are enriched with the singing of melodious spirituals by a choir. The cast is a tremendous one, some of the actors having been taken from the stage production with others recruited in New York and Los Angeles.

The other end of the first of the week double bill is a brand new picture "Bulldog Drummond Escapes" with Ray Milland and Heather Angel in the leading roles.
