Synopsis of Land Act

PRE-EMPTIONS

7 ACANT, unreserved, surveyed Crown lands may be pre-empted by British subjects over 18 years of age, and by dence, occupation and improvement.

Full information concerning Pre-emptions is given in Bulletin No. 1, Land Series, "How to Pre-empt Land," copies of which can be obtained free of charge by addressing the Department of Lands, Victoria, B.C.; Burcau of Provincial Information. Victoria, or any Government Agent. Records will be granted covering only land suitable for agricultural purposes within reasonable distance of road, school and marketing facilities and which is no timberland, i.e., carrying over 5,000 board feet per acre east of the Coast Range and 8.000 feet per acre west of that Range. Applications for pre-emptions are to be addressed to the Land Commissioner of the Land Recording Division in which the land applied for is situated, on printed forms obtained from the Commissioner. Pre-emptions must be occupied for five years and improvements made to value of $10 per acre, including clearing and cultivating at least five acres, before a Crown Grant can be received. Pre-emptions carrying part time conditions of occupation are also granted. PURCHASE OR LEASE

Applications are received for purchase vacant and unreserved Crown lands, ot being timberland, for agricultural Minimum price of first-class (arable) land is $5 per acre, and secondclass (grazing) land, $2.50 per acre. Further information is given in Bulletin No. 10, Land Series, "Purchase and Lease

As a partial relief measure, reverted lands may be acquired by purchase in ten equal instalments, with the first payment suspended for two years, provided taxes are paid when due and improvements are made during the first two years of no less than 10% of the appraised value. factory or industrial sites on timber land, not exceeding 40 acres, may be purchased or leased, the conditions including payment of stumpage.

"The Gay Desperado," coming to (CP)—In addition to two new the Capitol Theatre here as the Martini is cast as the swashbuckling Chivo whose glorious voice causes him to be kidnapped by a Mexican bandit chief, Carrillo, who is really a sentimental, music-loving fellow at heart. Carrillo also kidnaps an American millionaire's weakling son, played by James Blakeley, and his sweetheart, Ida Lupino. Martini and Miss Lupino meet and fall in love. The former manages to escape and to effect the release of the other by a radio plea directed at Carrillo's heart.

Martini sings both popular and operatic songs in the picture.
