SATURDAY, DEC. 2

THE RAILWAY COMMISSION AND PRINCE RUPERT.

The telegraphic dispatch from the Daily News' special correspondent at Ottawa, announcing that the Railway Commission has refused to sanction the G. T. P. plans from Mile 0 to Mile 3, westerly from Prince Rupert, has proved welcome news to many citizens in Prince Rupert, and the full text of the judgment is eagerly being awaited.

It means that, despite the City Council's withdrawal of objection to the railway plans, the citizens who purchased property on Cow Creek with the idea of using it as waterfrontage are not going to have their rights sacrificed.

Cow Creek is the only piece of waterfrontage in Prince Rupert that has been purchasable by private citizens. The action of the railway company in blocking up the entrance of the creek without securing sanction for their plans was a high-handed piece of work that robbed the property owners of Cow Creek waterfrontage of the especial value their property possessed.

If the railway counted on being able to carry out their work by force, to hush up opposition later, and then to secure a sanction with the help of the City Council's cringing letter, they reckoned without the Chairman of the Railway Commission. He has had too much experience with the ways of little opportunist councils of tradesmen, holding office for twelve months, to be affected in his judgments by any consideration save that of justice. Chairman Mabey is the modern St. George, rescuing maiden municipalities from the clutch of the railroad dragons.

It is to be hoped that Judge Mabey will be able to save some of the bays for the mosquito fleet, in addition to restoring the navigable waters of Cow Creek to the property holders of that district.

IN TABLOID DOSES.

Toronto practically rules Canada. A 3 per cent. majority in over a million votes gives Mr. Borden a 22 per cent. majority in the House of Commons. Two-thirds of that electoral majority comes from Tory Toronto. Toronto practically rules Canada at present.

A Boston man has secured a divorce on the ground that his wife insisted on playing solitaire. Where does "the eternal triangle" come in on this case.

The McNamara brothers ought to get an extra year apiece for obtaining money for their defense by false pretenses. The union men of America contributed gladly on the McNamaras' assurances that they were innocent men. The money would never have been contributed to save a pair of cowardly murderers from a well deserved fate.

MIGHT HAVE BEEN WORSE

Two Men Got a Ducking When the Powder Wharf Collapsed.

Two employees of Foley, Welch & Stewart were thrown into the harbor by the collapsing of the powder wharf across the bay. One hundred cases of dynamite and a few cases of gasoline also went in.

H. Johnson of the Johnson boat house happened to be out in a rowboat at the time of the occurrence and observed the men in the water clinging to a log. He promptly performed the rescue act and then assisted in saving dynamite, which was floating around in the water.
