MEN'S SUPPER AT CATHEDRAL

Annual Event Well Up to Standard
 Considering Drawback of Flu Epidemic

The annual supper of the men of the congregation of St. Andrew's Anglican Cathedral took place last night with C. V. Evitt presiding in place of W. H. Tobey who was laid up with the influenza. It was very well attended, considering the number who were not able to be present on account of being victims of the epidemic. An excellent supper was provided by the members of the Woman's Auxiliary who were appropriately thanked.

In his opening address Mr. Evitt urged those present to stand by their church and not forget attendance at the services. Rev. J. E. Birchall, in a well thought-out address, spoke of the well known instinct which made animals of a species group together. Man showed relation to the animals in this way, that they herded together and the Church provided opportunities for this gathering together at suitable times and on suitable occasions. The dinner that evening was one of those occasions.

Mr. Birchall referred to the criminal tendencies of modern young people as shown by statistics. Young people were apt to act without constraint and become out of control of their parents. There was no authority to guide them. He asked the men present to search themselves and see if often the young people were not patterning themselves after their elders. Our boasted liberty often was replaced by license. A unifying force was most desirable and this the Church sought to provide through the gospel of Christ.

Dean Gibson gave an inspirational talk suitable to the occasion and Commissioner W. J. Alder spoke briefly.

A toast to the ladies was proposed by Col. W. J. Nicholls and replied to by Mr. Evitt.

Miss Maureen Kirkpatrick entertained with a piano selection and David Jones sang twice. Miss Engina Christensen, accompanied by her sister Margaret, gave two violin solos.

The Woman's Auxiliary ladies in charge of the tables were:

Convenor—Mrs. T. Andrew.
 Tables—Mrs. C. V. Evitt, with Mrs. J. H. Bulger, Mrs. J. A. Hinton, Mrs. A. Rix, Mrs. Percy Tinker and Mrs. J. S. Wilson.

Mrs. J. Johns, with Mrs. C. C. Mills, Mrs. A. E. Parlow and Mrs. Trevor Johnson.

Mrs. F. A. MacCallum with Mrs. G. W. Cripps, Mrs. W. J. Nelson, Mrs. J. W. Nicholls and Mrs. W. Dugate.

Mrs. George Dawes and Senior Girls.

Helpers were Mrs. W. C. Aspinall, Mrs. S. V. Cox, Mrs. W. J. Greer, Mrs. Noel Jones and Mrs. H. S. Meadows.

Bringing home the remains of her son, Herman, who passed away on Saturday night at Tranquille Sanitarium, Mrs. H. Skattebol will return to the city on tomorrow night's train. Also coming in will be Mrs. Skattebol's other son, Arthur, who went to Jasper to meet her.

The Junior Chamber of Commerce, at its regular monthly meeting last night, decided to hold a dance on April 2 with a view to raising funds to aid projects in hand. It is planned to present a number of novelties including possibly a fashion show. The social committee, Ross Ingram, chairman, will proceed with arrangements.

Norkap Society Social Evening

Mr. and Mrs. Schersvold Honored With Presentation Following Recent Marriage

Following the regular monthly meeting Monday night with President H. Gulbransen in the chair, the local Norkap Society, who had turned out in goodly numbers, enjoyed a social evening. First a delicious fish cake supper was served in the course of which a presentation was made to Mr. and Mrs. Schersvold who were recently married. A brief program was presented and then card playing was enjoyed, the prize winners being: ladies' first, Mrs. Holkestad; second, Mrs. P. Andersen; men's first, Nels Luth; second, Fred Ellisen; Ingvald Fenness was the winner of a raffle. To round out the evening dancing was enjoyed with music by Mrs. Luth and Henry Lindseth.

"The most beautiful object in the world, it will be allowed, is a beautiful woman."

And it needs no proof that all women are beautiful, although Macaulay, the historian, who said this, was careful enough never to marry one.

Beautiful objects require beautiful settings, so instinctively, women like beautiful homes. Comfort goes with beauty and comfort requires warmth. This is why Albert & McCaffery's coal enters so largely into Prince Rupert's domestic economy.

For twenty years, Albert & McCaffery's coal has been the best available. It is the best today. And if better could be got, we would have it. It gives you the most heat for the least money—and that's what you want. And besides giving you the most heat, it's the most economical because—it lasts!

Next time you need coal, just phone 116 or 117 to Albert & McCaffery and order Nanaimo-Wellington coal for the furnace and heater. For the kitchen range, ask for egg size Balkan Minehead, Alberta sootless. It's trade name is "Inferno." It's hot. And it lasts, too.

You deserve the best.

Dick Evans of Terrace, having been taken suddenly ill on Sunday, was brought to Prince Rupert Hospital Tuesday night. Mr. Evans lately arrived at Terrace from Massett where he conducted a dairy business.

Notice—A mass meeting of citizens will be held in the City Hall, Wednesday, February 3rd, at 8 o'clock. Important radio project pertaining to C.B.C.C. program hook-up. All interested please attend. (27)

The Prince Rupert Gyro Club was in monthly business session today when various club affairs were taken up with Dr. H. N. Brocklesby, president, in the chair over a good attendance of members.

The suggestion was put forward by J. C. Gilker at the meeting of the Prince Rupert Junior Chamber of Commerce last night that the chamber might interest itself more actively in various problems of national importance—financial, political and economic. The consensus of opinion seemed to be that this might well be left to the members individually.

GIRL GUIDES MEETING

First Prince Rupert Company of Girl Guides met last night at the home of Mrs. J. B. Gibson, Fourth Avenue East. Under the leadership of Captain Muriel Brewerton, there was the usual routine after which there was a campfire circle around the fireplace. Delicious refreshments were provided by Mrs. Gibson.
