Fellowship With God is Subject

Pastor E. J. North Speaker At Fourth Meeting of Universal Week of Prayer

Pastor E. J. North of the Pentecostal Assembly delivered the message last night at the Salvation Army Citadel where the fourth meeting in observance of the Universal Week of Prayer here was held. The subject was "Fellowship With God" and there was a fairly good attendance. Final meetings will be held tonight—one at the Pentecostal Assembly with Rev. Dr. F. W. Dafoe as speaker and the other at St. Peter's Anglican Church where Major Eva Laycock will be heard—the subject to be

Last night's meeting opened with community singing of hymns followed by a session of voluntary prayer. Pastor North read the tine nature, reports were read Scripture lesson and a vocal duet, Nominations for 1937 officers which showed a very satisfactory "Fellowship With Thee," by Major Prince Rupert last night to resume. Preisdent C. V. Evitt of the Ro- were received at a meeting of the year for the organization, both Eva Laycock and Capt. The elec- Robertson was a fitting prelude to the message of the evening.

> "Fellowship or partnership with God is the duty and privilege of each believer," declared Pastor North. There was lack in the world today of real fellowship with God. If man lived in contact with God word and God's truth. God recognized no denomination but enjoined all to fellowship with one another through him. Pastor North also reminded his listeners of the forbidden fellowship with world. The church was likened to a vessel on the sea of the world. None of the sea must get into the vessel or disaster would follow.

> The meeting closed with the singing of the hymn "I Surrender All" and Dean Gibson pronounced the benediction.

Mrs. Frank Dibb, who has been visiting in Brooklyn, N.Y., with her daughter, Mrs. W. W. Wood, is expected to return to the city towards the end of the month.
