glamorous Waikiki enacted by a cast including some well known names of the radio and screen are said to make "Waikiki Wedding," coming to the Capitol Theatre at the middle of this week, an attractive holiday offering.

The cast is headed by Bing! Crosby and includes Bob Burns, Martha Raye, Shirley Ross, George Barbier and Lief Erikson! in the principal roles with background and atmosphere provided by native dancers, drummers and musicians of Hawaii. Among the latter are Miri Rei, a Honolulu dancing girl who was with Ziegfeld Follies a few years ago.

The story is that of a smart publicity man, played by Crosby, who organizes a contest for pineapple recipes, the winner to receive a vacation in Waikiki. Miss Ross wins the contest and goes to Hawaii but becomes bored with the place and threatens to ruin the publicity campaign. Much of the rest of the picture is taken lup with Crosby's attempts to keep Miss Ross thrilled in the course of which he falls in love with the girl. Bob Burns and Martha Raye also have an hilarious and robust romance.
