HOMEWORK QUIET

Doctors advise that in every home where there are men's Compensation Board. children of school age there should be an hour of quiet board was to bring the resolusoon after supper during which the young folks may do tions before the next convention their homework undisturbed by piano practising, loud of the British Columbia Hospitalking, radio music or any other disturbance. The view was these conditions the children can concentrate on their British Columbia Hospital's Aswork and the quiet will also benefit other members of the sociation did not have the inhousehold. For children to try to work while other noises flluence with the government that are going on is a great nervous strain and likely to cause it should have. Possibly this was mental and physical injuries.

"Keep brakes, lights, horn, steering and tires in safe condition.

"Watch the car ahead and not follow too closely.

"Expect the unexpected at all times.

"Be courteous and considerate of others.

"Drive as you would have others drive and thus set a good example."

UNANIMOUS DECISION

The citizens of Dawson Creek in the Peace River Block wanted electric light and power and they could not afford to put in a plant themselves so they offered a franchise to a power company. The deal had to be voted on by the ratepayers and it carried without a single vote in opposition, a most unusual thing in any community. There are usually at least a few people who seem to be opposed to the rest as a matter of principle, but in Dawson Creek the vote was unanimous. Imagine such a condition in Prince Rupert.

Nelson Board Makes Number Of Suggestions With View To Getting Greater Government Assistance

The Kootenay Lake General Hosa communication before board of directors of the Prince Rupert General Hospital last night seeking endorsation for a number of rather drastic proposals of increased government aid Ito hospitals. Some of the proposals were endorsed by the local board while others were not considered acceptable.

One resolution, pointing out that the present government grants were not commensurate with losses which hospitals sustained through free patients and Rothwell, Mrs. Bond jr., Mrs. freshments were served at midbad debts, advocated an increase Michaeloff, Mrs. Gawthorne, Mrs. night with Mrs. Peter Wingham in the government grant from E. Another of the Nelson resolutions raised the old question of arbitrary refusal of the Workmen's Compensation Board to pay hospital accounts in full. The re solution proposed that the government should amend the Workmen's Compensation Act so as to provide for the deduction of hos pital accounts from benefits to persons under compensation. The local board refused to endorse this proposal, expressing the view that the problem could be more equitably dealt with by means of a better understanding being obtained between hospitals, the doc. tors concerned and the Work-
