Synopsis of Land Act

PRE-EMPTIONS VACANT, unoccupied, surveyed Crown lands may be pre-empted by British subjects over 18 years of age, and by aliens on declaring intention to become British subjects, conditional upon residence, occupation and improvement. Full information concerning Pre-emption is given in Bulletin No. 1, Land Series, "How to Pre-empt Land," copies of which can be obtained free of charge by addressing the Department of Lands, Victoria, B.C., Bureau of Provincial Information, Victoria, or any Government Agent. Records will be granted covering only land suitable for agricultural purposes (than reasonable distance of road, school and marketing facilities and which is not timberland, i.e., carrying over 5,000 board feet per acre, and is not less than 8,000 feet per acre west of that range. Applications for pre-emption are to be addressed to the Land Commissioner of the Land Recording Division in which the land applied for is situated, on printed forms obtained from the Commissioner. Pre-emption must be occupied for five years and improvements made to value of $10 per acre, including clearing and cultivating at least five acres, before a Crown Grant can be received. Pre-emption carrying part time conditions of occupation are also granted. PURCHASE OR LEASE Applications are received for purchase of vacant and unoccupied Crown lands not being timberland, for agricultural purposes. Minimum price of first-class (arable) land is $5 per acre, and second-class (grazing) land, $2.50 per acre. Further information is given in Bulletin No. 18, Land Series, "Purchase and Lease of Crown Lands." As a partial relief measure, surveyed areas may be acquired by purchase in equal instalments, with the first payment suspended for two years, provided lease are paid when due and improvements are made during the first two years of not less than 10% of the appraised value. Mill, factory or industrial sites on timber land, not exceeding 40 acres, may be purchased or leased, the conditions including payment of stumpage. UNSURVEYED areas not exceeding 30 acres, may be leased as homestead, conditional upon a dwelling being erected in the first year, title being obtained after residence and improvement conditions are fulfilled and land has been surveyed. For grazing and industrial purposes areas not exceeding 40 acres may be leased by one person or a company. Under the Grazing Act the Province is divided into grazing districts and the range administered under grazing regulations amended from time to time to meet varying conditions. Annual grazing permits are issued based on certain monthly rates per head of stock. Priority in grazing privileges is given to resident stock owners. Stock owners may form associations for range management. Free or partially free permits are available for sheep, camels and livestock, up to an amount

Library Board Is In Session Necessary Extensions to be Made To Accommodate More Books The Prince Rupert Library board held its regular monthly meeting on Friday evening. Those present were Frank Dibb, chairman, T. B. Black, secretary, W. J. Alder, commissioner, R. L. McLennan and T. J. Williams and Miss Olive Can Cooten, librarian. It was agreed that $50 be spent in rebinding. An additional sum of $50 will also be spent on new books for the free adult and children's sections. Necessary extensions will be made in the library to accommodate increasing numbers of books—especially those which the provincial government is expected to supply to the library within the next few months. Miss Van Cooten, acting librarian, has now been confirmed in her appointment as librarian, for a trip to the Yukon on ecclesiastical business. Basil E. Bailey of the scientific staff of the Prince Rupert Fisheries Experimental Station left on last evening's train for Madison where he will resume his post-graduate studies at the University of Wisconsin.
