Messrs. Rogers and Black Were Mistaken About Ald. Clayton.

At the outset of the coal investigation last night Alderman Clayton demanded from Messrs. Rogers and Black the name of the alderman mentioned in their letter to the Council as having "for reasons of his own instructed Mr. Alliston to measure the coal." After a moment's demur Mr. Rogers named Ald. Clayton. Mr. Alliston was sworn, and denied that Ald. Clayton had ever instructed him to measure the coal, after which Mr. Rogers agreed to withdraw all reference to the alderman in question by letter to be published.

Admiral Schley's Own Story

A man died the other day, and with his death passed America's most popular naval hero—popular because championed by the people, though officially denied the full fruits of his long and brilliant service. This man was Admiral Schley, hero of Santiago, one of the great sea-fighters of history. Shortly before his death Admiral Schley completed for Cosmopolitan a series of articles giving his personal recollections of his forty-five years in the navy. He was not anxious to do this for there was at least one old story that an autobiography must reopen. But we urged upon him the fact that nearly four million readers would see each instalment of his story, and most of these readers believed, with Admiral Dewey, that the men who stood on the deck of the Brooklyn that July Sunday in '98 was entitled to the glory of that great victory. So he consented. Not in the cut and dried way, but unlocking his secret soul as he had never done before. The first installment of the autobiography, the life story of a man worth while in the nation's history, appears in the Christmas number. Subscription to Cosmopolitan will be accepted until December 10th at the special low rate to Canada of $1.50. Cosmopolitan Agency, Box 851 Winnipeg.

Cosmopolitan and Dickens

CHARLES DICKENS is still a "best seller." Publishers don't argue pro and con over his books—they just order a new carload of paper, oil the presses, and let them speed on. And it has been over forty years since, one morning when the yard was filled with scarlet geraniums and the breath of syringa was heavy in the air, the great author followed little Nell. Now that the centenary of his birth (February 7th, 1812), approaches and everybody is thinking of Dickens. We have secured several articles which will tell many things about him that have hitherto been unknown. In the January Cosmopolitan his son, Alfred Tennyson Dickens, will tell you some of his own personal recollections of the great novelist. Later, probably in February Mary Angela Dickens, his granddaughter, will give an intimate view of Dickens as she remembers him. In fact, in these and other articles on Dickens which will follow—fully illustrated, of been published of these human—course—we shall aim to give you a more vivid picture than has yet the home—side of the great master, written by those who knew him best. Read the articles—they will surely arouse a new interest in the "best beloved" author in your library. Subscription to Cosmopolitan will be accepted until December 10th at the special low rate to Canada of $1.50. Cosmopolitan Agency, Box 851 Winnipeg.
