The Letter Box

CASE OF INDIANS

Editor, Daily News:—When Olof Hanson M.P. found the incredible conditions under which the Indians are forced to exist, though it was not his duty, he investigated the reason why the Indians should receive such small rations in relief and this was the reply he received: "The Indians live tax free on their reserves. They have free medical attendance and schooling. They are clothed by the Department. Their houses are repaired when necessary. They also have land for gardens and are supplied with seeds. They can fish and hunt and are supplied with ammunition."

If we, the Indians, are tax free on our reserves, why don't they refund all taxes we pay indirectly on everything we buy? If we are getting free schooling, why are our children compelled to work like men in school for their board and allowed only half a day's schooling? If we are getting free medical attention, why don't they take honest steps towards checking tuberculosis among the Indians? Would you call giving tubercular Indians a couple of spoons of cod liver oil per day and a few pills to other sick Indians medical attendance? If we are supplied with clothing, seeds and ammunition and if our houses are repaired, I'm from Missouri, they'll have to show me. Yes, we can fish and hunt but the provincial police might put us in jail for illegal hunting and fishing.

On top of all this and after impressing us that they were giving us relief, what have our guardians done with all our trust fund? I thank you for your valuable space.

RELIEF PAYMENTS

The Editor, Daily News:—I read with amazement the article on the above subject in your newspaper yesterday. The only mistake you made was to neglect publishing the Englishman's name in block letters. The colossal sum of $4,468.16 which your report as having been paid to one family is both astounding and appalling. This man is a discredit to his race and one which the rest of us might well wholeheartedly be ashamed of if not despise.

And the size of his family too here is an instance where sterilization might be applied. Including the expense of schooling, this family must cost the rest of us over a thousand dollars every year. This explains to some extent why we have to allow property to revert to the City on account of being unable to meet the high taxes.

It is surprising that the City

Telephone Bridge By Sons of Norway

Affair Held Last Night at a Number of Homes

Last evening a telephone bridge was held under the auspices of the Sons of Norway. Mrs. A. Wick, Mrs. K. Slatta, Mrs. Hans Underdahl and Mrs. A. Dybhavn were the individual hostesses for the occasion. Prize winners were: ladies' first, Mrs. Dan Larsen, $7.50; second, Mrs. Tusvik, 2953; men's first, A. Dybhavn, 3155; second, H. Anderson, 2970. Refreshments were served by each hostess at the conclusion of the game.

NATIVE ENGLISH

LOCAL RELIEF CASES

Your paper is making some very interesting statements on the composition of the people on relief in this city. But there is a little hitch in the calculations. That a great many of the local relief cases should be, what you term it, "alien," is only natural in a city where the pioneer citizens are all "old country people." That their children, who are not listed as relief recipients are Canadians is a matter of accident. No doubt you wish to point out that the alien population in this province is lazier than the native born but somehow this does not sound convincing.

Furthermore, we have some outstanding politicians here who are foreign born but are never referred to as alien. I could mention the local M. P. as well as Mr. Bruhn, but perhaps this is not relevant to the subject. There is one thing, however, that editors should never forget. Logic tells people when facts are used or imagination.

OTHERS UNEMPLOYED

Editor, Daily News:—In your issue of February 25 you print some very interesting facts on relief payments.

A family of two adults and 10 dependents are alleged to have received $4,468.16 over a period of 76 months. Some of the recipients are also said to be alien birth. A much more interesting item on unemployment disbursement is mentioned in the next column also on the first page.

Here we have a case of a well known bachelor who is now unemployed in an alien land, and who will draw $633.333.33 1-3 from the

"I would have then, our ordinary dwelling houses built to last and built to be lovely; as rich and full of pleasantness as may be, within and without."

John Ruskin, in his insistence upon beauty, was looked upon as a crank by his utilitarian countrymen. Some day, maybe, the ideal in his "Seven Lamps of Architecture" may be realised.

The beginning of pleasantness in your home is warmth. And for a steady lasting pervading warmth, nothing beats Albert & McCaffery's coal.

And for the house itself, Albert & McCaffery carry the largest stock of lumber in this North country—not only beams and joists, studs, and sheathing and the other structural timbers you don't see, but of finishing woods as well.

It is often in the finish to a house that its beauty lies. Likely some little alterations to your house would be an improvement. Let your dwelling be full of pleasantness; warm with Albert & McCaffery's coal and beautiful with their smooth, fine grained finished woods. Just phone 116 or 117. You deserve the best!

BRITISH COLUMBIA LEADERS

Hon. William Smithe, Premier of British Columbia, January 29, 1883, to March 29, 1887. During the Hon. Mr. Smithe's term of office, much was accomplished. The controversial question of the Island Railway was settled and the line built. The Provincial Government also gave a grant of 6000 acres of land in the vicinity of Vancouver in order that the Transcontinental Railway would extend its lines to that point. Redistribution of legislative representation was also brought about, and the question of Oriental immigration into British Columbia was placed under Federal jurisdiction.

Silver Spring Lager, brewed in Victoria, B.C., has won an international reputation for its high quality. Wherever you go you meet those whom only Silver Spring will satisfy.
