Unfair Treatment

Byron Johnson, member of the Legislature for Victoria, addressing the Credit Granters' Association at their annual meeting recently at Vancouver, stated that eastern manufacturers and dealers gained an unfair advantage over the western provinces from a high protective tariff, forcing British Columbia people to pay prices not only beyond their means but absurdly high in relation to those prevailing in the United States. At the same time the western producers had to sell in an open world market. For that reason he favored the appointment of a commission to investigate the relations of this province with the rest of the Dominion. He claimed that in one year the province paid a bonus of five million dollars to the manufacturers of the east. Under the Bennett loan plan, of which he spoke well, British Columbia received only $31,000 while Ontario and Quebec received more than two million dollars in loans. These are conditions that Premier Pattullo is trying to have rectified.

Period of Readjustment

One of the most common expressions used in recent years is "period of readjustment." It is a wonderful period in which to live and to know that the ills of the old days are being readjusted. In those days people took it for granted that many would suffer while few enjoyed life. Today we know that this condition is wrong and that we are passing through a long "period of readjustment." It will take many years, probably many centuries before the readjustments are satisfactory and even then there will be other adjustments to be made. The struggle of humanity for a better condition has been intensified since the war. Many conditions have been changed, but not always for the better. The danger is that, after changes have been made, the conditions may be worse than before.

Most people want to see every person happy but it is more difficult to move people in the mass than it is individually. A recent speaker here referred to the movement of people as similar to the movement of cattle. A herd of cattle he explained may be tired and each member of the herd may wish to lie down but the milling movement of the herd prevents it because any individual that attempted to lie down would be trodden upon and possibly killed by the rest of the herd. So today it is difficult for the individual to bring about a change unless he happens to be a great individual, strong mentally and physically and with a towering personality. That is what has brought about the conditions which have made dictators flourish in some countries. The herd was helpless, so a super-man took them in hand with whip and scourge and told them what to do and they did it.

To avoid a condition arising like that in any country it is necessary that the individuals of the nation be reasonable men, willing to adjust differences and work steadily toward that better time that is coming—the millennium.

DINNER OF MUSEUM BD.

Over Fifty Persons Attended Initial Annual Event Last Evening

Good Program

Unique Bill of Fare, Speeches And Music Pass Time Pleasantly

The first annual dinner meeting of the Northern British Columbia Museum members held last evening proved an outstanding success. Over fifty people attended and there were a number of excellent speeches, some good music and the bill of fare was, to say the least, unusual. The stuffed owl with formaldehyde sauce proved most appetizing and the sea-serpent steak was above suspicion. The general arrangements were in the capable hands of the president, R. L. McIntosh, Dr. Neal Carter and Dr. J. T. Mandy and much credit is due them for the excellent result. A new impetus was given to museum work by the admirable addresses and the support given.

The dinner menu was as follows: Hors D'Oeuvres — Lepidoptera wings; Picea sitchensis twigs. Soup—Potage olichan a la Naas. Entrees—Stuffed owl, formaldehyde sauce. Urched sea urchins. Piece D'Resistance—Sea-serpent steak, Jerked Bear, Pestled Mortars, Boiled slate totems.

Desserts—Iceed Quartz, Candied Galena. Beverages—Labrador tea, Alcohol preservative. Cedar Bark chews, Assorted flints, Gall nuts.

McIntosh Presides

President McIntosh made an excellent chairman and supporting him at the head table were Mrs. R. L. McIntosh and Mrs. J. T. Mandy. Addresses were given by the president, City Commissioner W. J. Alder, Rev. Canon W. F. Rushbrook, Dr. J. T. Mandy, and Rev. W. H. Pierce. Dr. W. A. Riddell entertained with piano solos and also accompanied Tom Johnstone and Wilfrid Hicks in a very enjoyable clarinet duet. Mrs. Mandy gave a humorous monologue.

Those present were Dr. Neal Carter, Mr. and Mrs. M. M. Stephens and Fred Jr., Mr. and Mrs. F. Dibb, Miss Margaret L. J. Halliwell, Miss S. A. Mills, Norman A. Watt, Albert Eyolfson, Mr. and Mrs. George W. Cripps, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Tobey, Mr. and Mrs. F. A. MacCallum, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph T. Mandy, Mr. and Mrs. R. L. McIntosh, City Commissioner W. J. Alder, Mrs. Jessie Jacobs, Mr. and Mrs. N. L. Jones, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Thompson, Mrs. F. St. Amour, Very Rev. J. B. Gibson, L. West, W. K. Christenson, Mr. and Mrs. M. P. McCaffery, C. G. Ham, Miss Lois McRae, W. Barton, J. Bulger, H. F. Pullen, R. E. Mortimer, Jarvis H. McLeod, Max Heilbronner, H. F. McLeod, Theo. Collart, G. L. Rorie, Mr. and Mrs. D. C. McRae, W. J. Hicks, T. A. Johnstone, W. A. Riddell, Rev. W. H. Pierce and Rev. W. F. Rushbrook.

Board Re-elected

At the business meeting following the dinner the old members of the board were re-elected as follows: R. L. McIntosh, Mrs. J. B. Gibson, A. E. Parlow, Dr. J. T. Mandy, Rev. Canon Rushbrook, Rev. W. E. Collison, C. G. Ham, W. J. Alder, Dr. Neal Carter, H. F. Pullen.

In view of the large number of exhibits contributed by people outside of Prince Rupert and of the wide interest taken at outside points in the work of the museum, it was decided to change the name to the Museum of Northern British Columbia.

A vote of appreciation of the work done by the custodian and Mrs. Jones was passed and also a vote of thanks to Mrs. Gibson for the excellent work done by her as honorary secretary. Rev. W. H. Pierce was also accorded a vote of appreciation of his useful activities during the tourist season. Dr. Carter explained at some length the manner in which the donation from the Carnegie fund might be expended. A general note of optimism prevailed.

C. N. R. steamer Prince George, Capt. H. E. Nedden, with a fair-sized list of passengers, arrived in port at 10:30 this morning from Vancouver. Powell River and Ocean Falls and will sail at 4 o'clock this afternoon for Anyox and Stewart whence she will return here tomorrow evening southbound.

CALDER RINK WINS TROPHY

Some Snappy Play Seen in Concluding Games at Smithers

SMITHERS, Feb. 24.—Continuing the remaining games to decide the winner of the Nabob tournament in the curling bonspiel at Smithers, the fancy curling rink of L. C. Calder put the Stephens rink out of the running in the semi-finals and went on to down the Downey rink in the finals on Sunday afternoon. Skip Calder gave a scientific demonstration of how the game should be played and took the crack rink of J. P. Downey into camp with a 14 to 6 score. The Calder rink has been very successful throughout the winter and has made a good showing in every contest.

HOCKEY AT SMITHERS

Canucks Score Victory Over Elks Despite Strong Finish Of Latter

SMITHERS, Feb. 24.—The first game in the series of best three out of five to decide the winner of the Bamford Hockey Trophy in the Smithers Town League was played on Sunday afternoon between the leading Native Sons team and the Elks' team, which was runner-up, the Canucks winning 6 to 5.

The ice was in excellent condition and the weather was just right but there was not as large a crowd of enthusiasts on hand as might have been expected to witness first class hockey.

The Native Sons got away to a good start and outplayed their opponents in the first period which ended in a score of 2 to 0.

In the second period the Sons continued to outplay the Elks who did not seem to get going at all and the Sons kept on rolling up the score, this period ending with the 'count 6 to 1.

The third period was a different story altogether. It would appear that the manager of the Elks had read the Riot Act to his team during the rest period. From the time that they took the ice in the last period they also took possession of the puck and, showing the class that has distinguished them during the winter, they bombarded the goal of the Native Sons with shots from all angles and "Topsy" Robinson, who was looking after the nets for the Sons, was the busiest man on the ice for the remainder of the game. He succeeded in stopping many hot shots but the Elks had pushed five counters past him when the last bell rang. The Sons were lucky that they managed to hold on to part of the lead they had run up during the first two periods.

The story is told that at potato digging time, Mackenzie, who was seven years older than young Burns, was in charge of a field. The "picking" always fell to the younger boys, and so "Pat" was allotted this particular job. This was the beginning of a business association that later laid the foundation of the "P. Burns and Co.
