Early Advent Of Christ on Earth

Evangelist Deplores Indifference Of World to Second Coming

Another impressive message was delivered by Evangelist Ainsley Blair at the Seventh Day Adventist Mission last night when he spoke on the topic: "Will Jesus Christ Return in our Day?" Mr. Blair deplored the general indifference in the world to this question. There are two focal points in man's redemption from sin, declared the speaker, both stupendous in character. One was the coming of the Son of God to this earth in human flesh—the other a more outstanding and magnificent demonstration, yet the necessary outcome of the first—the glorious second coming of Christ as King of Kings. "We read," said Mr. Blair, "how at His first coming the Jews were not ready for their Lord, and the same danger confronts the Christian world today."

"Of human life."

Robbie Burns, Scotland's poet, managed to achieve more ecstatic happiness and more misery in his short life than is given to most folk in a long life. And he wrote these lines from his own experience.

To make a happy fireside clime, you cannot do better than use Albert & McCaffery's coal. For twenty years it has been the best coal available. It is the best today. And if better could be got, we would have it. It gives you the most heat for the least money—and that's what you want!

So, for a happy fireside clime, the next time you need coal, just phone 116 or 117 to Albert & McCaffery and order Nanaimo-Wellington for furnace and heater; Alberta-soot-less for the kitchen range.

You deserve the best!

Mass Halibut Fishing Project Is Dropped—Snow Delays Princess Norah—More Live Mink Shipped Through Here.

The project to send the Norwegian steamer Thorland to the Pacific Coast to engage in mass fishing of halibut has been called off, the Pacific Coast News, published in Vancouver, has learned. Backers of the plan write: "The company made some investigations but found the conditions rather bad and, therefore, resolved not to send the Thorland over." Some fears had been expressed on this coast that the operation of a vessel of this nature in the fishery might have disrupted the industry rather seriously.

Union steamer Catala, Capt. John Muir, arrived in port at 7:15 last evening from the south and sailed at 9 p.m. for Port Simpson, Stewart, Anyox and other northern points whence she will return here Tuesday morning southbound.

With almost capacity list of 160 passengers, C. P. R. steamer Princess Norah, Capt. William Palmer, arrived in port at 9:45 last night from Skagway and other Alaska points and sailed an hour later for Vancouver. The vessel was late, having hove to yesterday afternoon off Tree Point on account of snow. The Princess Norah is due to call here next Saturday morning on her next Alaska voyage. She continues to operate on a ten-day schedule in view of American Alaska boats still being tied up by the maritime workers' strike.

Bringing in another shipment of live mink for shipment to the eastern States over the Canadian National Railways, the Petersburg boat Excel, Capt. Molver, arrived in port at 8 o'clock this morning. The shipment of fur-bearers is the second of its kind to be made this way, the first having been made several weeks ago. R. Ohmar, Petersburg canneryman, who is making the shipments, was here aboard the Princess Norah last night going through to Seattle on business.

The Ketchikan motor vessel Eskimo was in port yesterday with one carload of frozen fish for trans-shipment east over Canadian National Railways.

Dr. C. McC. Mottley, who for some years, has been in charge of fresh fish culture for the Biological Board of Canada on this coast, working out of the Nanaimo biological station, has resigned from the service of the board. He is joining the staff of the New York State College at Cornell.

FOUND DEAD IN HIS BED

William M. Wright Expired In Sleep Early Saturday Morning

William M. Wright, pioneer resident of Prince Rupert, who for many years was managing secretary of the Prince Rupert General Hospital and later proprietor of Little's News Stand here, was found dead late Saturday afternoon in bed at the Central Hotel where he resided. He is believed to have been dead since about 1 o'clock in the morning. Death was due to natural causes, it was decided.

Mr. Wright had been a resident of Prince Rupert since 1909, having come here from Dawson. Previously he had been at Telegraph Creek and Atlin. He went north in '88 and at one time, with the late Ex-Ald. Hamilton Douglas, had a roadhouse up the Stikine River.

Born in 1865, he was at one time in the wholesale drug business in Montreal as well as in the hotel business at Winnipeg and later came west to Victoria whence he proceeded north.

Surviving relatives include a maiden sister in Ottawa and a brother, a doctor, who at one time was located on the Queen Charlotte Islands.

It was about 3 o'clock Saturday afternoon when inquiry was made from the news stand after Mr. Wright failed to put in his usual appearance. His room was locked at the hotel so an attendant looked over the transom. Deceased was lying across the bed in his night attire. The police were called and the coroner notified.

Mr. Wright had been attending to his duties up to Friday night and appeared to be in normal health and spirits. He had had an attack of influenza two or three weeks ago.

BACKS UP THIS BILL

Good Entertainment Value in Two Pictures at First of This Week, Says Theatre Manager

A fine British picture "Nine Days a Queen" and a refreshing comedy of decidedly Irish flavor "Kelly the Second," featuring Patsy Kelly and Charlie Chase, comprises a double picture bill at the first of this week at the Capitol Theatre which manager Dave Borland says is quite above average in entertainment value. "Nine Days a Queen," as indicated by the title, is the story of Lady Jane Gray, who was on the throne of England for that length of time. It is a powerful drama of Sixteenth Century Tudor England, beginning with the death of Henry VIII and the intrigue over the succession. Principal roles are taken by Cecil Hardwicke and Nova Pilbeam. The events of the period are recorded with precision and considerable lavishness.

Swift-moving sequences and a story with ever-shifting locales makes "Kelly the Second" a lively comedy. Patsy Kelly is, of course well known through her many appearances in short pictures as Maxie Rosenbloom, former world's

Australia Wants Boys For Farms

Will be Placed With Farmers Under "Big Brother" Scheme Which Has Proven Success

MELBOURNE, Aust., Jan. 25:—Australia wants more British boys to learn farming. They will be placed with farmers under the "Big Brother" scheme—one of the most successful immigration plans yet devised.

The boys are carefully selected in Great Britain and looked after by farmers who act as their "Big Brothers" in Australia.

Since 1925, 1,609 "Little Brothers" have entered the State of Victoria, of whom 46 now own their own farms, six have share farming agreements, 514 have good jobs on the land, and 96 have commercial or non-farming positions.

Called south on account of the condition of her son, Herman, who is a patient in Tranquille Sanitarium, Mrs. H. Skattebol sailed for the south on the Princess Norah last night.

light heavyweight boxing champion, is seen in action in the picture which reveals the romance of a fighting truck driver and his Maxie Rosenbloom, former world's sweetheart trainer.
