Fierce Blaze Destroyed Freighter And Menaced Waterfront For a Time

BOSTON, March 10: (CP)-A fierce blaze aboard the nitrate and sugar-laden freighter Laila, which was marked by a series of explosions, was finally brought under control after a struggle by sea and land fire fighters to avert a menace to the entire Boston waterfront.

So hot was the blaze as burning nitrate poured out under a column of acrid black and yellow smoke that the ship's forward plates buckled like tissue.
