Miss Gladys Mildred Letnes Becomes Bride of Renhold Waldemer Anderson

A pretty and interesting wedding took place quietly at 6:30 last eve-St. Peter's Anglican Church, Seal Cove, when Miss Gla-M. B. Letnes and the late Martin Letnes, became the bride of Renhold Waldemer Anderson. Rev. J. E. Birchall, the rector, officiated.

The bride appeared charming indeed in a white satin floor length the throat. She carried a bouquet of mixed flowers in pastel shades.! Her veil was the one which her mother wore thirty-four years ago! when she was married.

The bride was attended by her nother.

Gordon Letnes was the grooms-

A wedding supper was held later it the bride's home where the ocasion was suitably honored. Mr. and Mrs. Anderson will re-ide in Prince Rupert.
