However, the results prove the Premier understood his public for he and his four Liberal running mates in the Halifax ridings were returned with large majorities.

There would seem to be a lesson in this for newspapers as well as public men. It is the same lesson that was offered last November in United States when, with the big with people from all around the Cup team golf championship at newspapers of the country almost unanimously against river gathering in the village for Southport, England, marked the him, President Roosevelt and the Democratic party won the occasion, Port Essington held first time that either side had the most complete victory in the history of United States its Dominion Day celebration on won on the other's home grounds; elections.
