SPORTS

WHITE VS. BLACK

The Struggle Between the Two Races Is Over a Century Old.

The abandoned fight between the young Englishman, Bombarrier Wells, and Jack Johnson brings to mind the many struggles for racial supremacy that have taken place between white and black.

On December 18, 1810, Tom Cribb, the English champion, faced the formidable American negro, Tom Molyneux, before a crowd such as had perhaps never before gathered to witness any like event.

As it was the English champion contrived to outlast the challenger, whose ferocious method of attack had exhausted his strength, and snatched a hardly earned victory.

From that time until Johnson beat Jeffries there has been no colored champion, though the race has produced many grand fighters.

The following year he accomplished an even greater feat when he decisively thrashed Tom Shelton, who was classed among the foremost heavyweights of the day.

Among other black fighters who have made a lasting reputation in the ring may be mentioned Bob Travers, the opponent of Jem Mace and Bob Brettie; Bob Dixon and Joe Gans, the accomplished lightweights, and Peter Jackson, whose memorable glove contest with Frank Slavin at the National Sporting Club will never be forgotten.

THE COSY CORNER

DEVOTED PRINCIPALLY TO THE INTERESTS OF WOMEN

This is a little section of the paper, which from day to day will be devoted to subjects of special interest to women.

CLEVER OR LEARNED?

Leaned Women Are Not Often Considered Clever.

Learned women are too often confused with clever women, and it is the former who usually meet with masculine disapproval—and feminine also, for that matter.

TO CURE BLUSHING

A Well Known Doctor Tells How to Seek a Cure.

The essential cause of morbid blushing is an inherited morbid temperament. Blushing usually takes place more readily before strangers than before acquaintances.
