More Executions Another half a hundred people have been executed in Soviet Russia for alleged espionage on behalf of the Japanese secret service. Surely the citizens of the ideal republic should not be forced to eke out a living by selling their services to a hostile country at the expense of their st. Louis native land.

Assist or Lead

There are in the present campaign several candidates who would be willing to assist in any good work that any leader might bring forward. They are excellent citizens Assistance of United States Coastand mean well. There is one candidate who is ready to continue to lead, provided the people have faith in him. Stops Skidegate Folk Coming Here

SKIDEGATE, May 22:-Stormy weather prevented the Skidegate football team, dance orchestra and others from the Queen Chailotte Island village from getting to Prince Rupert for the Coronation Day celebration last week. Departure was actually made by a party of forty but, after three hours had been spent facing the stormy seas, it became necessary to return home to Skidegate and call the trip off much to the disappointment of all.
