Help avoid infection by keeping your system free from harmful wastes and poisons that accumulate and lower your resistance. Take Fruit-a-tives, the prescription of a famous Canadian doctor. Fruit-a-tives contain extracts of fruits and herbs and act to stimulate the liver to normal healthy action; activate the flow of bile, cleanse the intestinal tract of harmful wastes and poisons, tend to purify the blood stream of poisons and acids. Keep your system toned up to perfect health. It is your best insurance against 'Flu. Fruit-a-tives are on sale at all drug stores. Insist on genuine Fruit-a-tives.

Anglican Young People's Tea Is Great Success

One of the most outstanding events of the spring season was the Anglican Young People's Association tea held on Saturday afternoon in St. Andrew's Cathedral Hall.

The association's colors of pale blue and white predominated in the decoration scheme which consisted of an archway of streamers and chains of cedar while the tea tables were centered with vases of daffodils and pussy willows. The head table was enhanced with a silver bowl of iris and mauve tapers while standard lamps of pastel shades stood in the background.

During the afternoon the guests were delighted with instrumental numbers by Miss Nellie Lawrence and her pupil orchestra as well as an exhibition of tap dancing by the pupils of Miss Eleanor Tite.

The visitors were received by Miss Noreen Gibson. Presiding at the tea table were Mrs. C. V. Evitt, Miss I. Withers, Miss K. Lang and Miss J. Cross. The serviteurs were the Misses I. Brennan, M. Stiles, L. Brockway, M. Ellison, B. Brockway, E. Finlay, M. Kirkpatrick and G. Cade under the direction of Miss J. McLean. The home cooking was in charge of Miss R. Nelson and Miss P. Yerburgh. The ice cream was served by R. Yerburgh assisted by J. Bremner. The cashier was E. Meadows while Mrs. G. Dawes read the teacups. The program was arranged by R. Yerburgh. Others giving valuable assistance were Messrs. H. Ponder, B. Cross and R. Meadows.

The decorations, which aroused the comment of all the guests, were supervised by E. Meadows assisted by the Misses J. Cross, R. Nelson, E. Rivett, J. McLean, B. Brockway, with C. Bartlett, B. Cross, P. Williamson and D. Meadows.

Major E. J. Gook of Wells, B. C. arrived in the city on Saturday night's train from Terrace for a brief business visit. Major Gook is an official of the Ominica Gold Quartz Mines Ltd. which is operating the well known Dardanelles property on Copper River, the locator of which, the late Stephen McNeill, died here last week. He sails for Vancouver on the Princess Norah this afternoon.

Overseas Colors Of Northern B.C. Battalion Here

Duplicate colors of the 102nd. (Northern British Columbia) Battalion, Canadian Expeditionary Force, arrived here last night from Vancouver in care of Capt. James Findlay, master of the steamer Catala, who turned them over to Bishop G. A. Rix, Lieut. Col. S. D. Johnston, officer commanding, 102nd. Battery, Royal Canadian Artillery (formerly 102nd. Battalion), and D. C. Schubert and James Parks, the last-mentioned two of whom served overseas with the old 102nd. With suitable ceremonies, the colors will later be permanently deposited in St. Andrew's Anglican Cathedral here. This ceremony will possibly take place around the time of the Coronation.

These colors were made by the same lady who made the dorsal for the altar in Westminster Abbey at the coronation of King George V and Queen Mary.

Massett Players On Island Tour

Dramatic Society Has Stands At Port Clements and Queen Charlotte City

MASSETT, April 12: — On Easter Monday the Dramatic Society of the Massett Community Club paid a visit to Port Clements and gave an entertainment consisting of three one-act plays, with music at the intervals. An appreciative reception was given all numbers and the hall was literally packed. A dance was given by Port Clements residents after the entertainment.

On Tuesday morning the players, accompanied by a few friends, took the trip over the Island Highway to Queen Charlotte City where an enthusiastic welcome was given them. Standing room only was again the order of the evening and many compliments were given the players on their excellent performance.

Another jolly dance followed the Queen Charlotte show. The trip was much enjoyed by all members of the party and both socially and financially was a decided success.

Some missionary work was done in connection with a petition to have the automobile road continued from Port Clements to Massett, thus linking all three towns. The entire Island seemed to be in favor of the idea.

Indeed, after seeing the splendid work accomplished on the Port Clements—Queen Charlotte road under the able supervision of A. R. Mallory, it is not surprising that there is a great desire to have through communication by road.

Some of the visitors had never been over the East Coast road and some not for a period of years.
