Great Britain, Capt. Eden said, firmly believed that there was only one way for preservation of world peace-respect for international law and observance of treaties.

After a round of speeches by heads of d. legations, the conference adjourned until tonight when the text of a declaration drafted by the United States and French delegations will be distributed to other delegations.

Towards Nanking

SHANGHAI, Nov. 13: (CP)-A Japanese gunboat successfully crossed a partly broken boom obstructing the upper Whangnoo River after armed Jananese naval launches swept a stream of mines, exploding several harmlessly. The exploratory voyage up the Whangpoo and a trip of two other armed launches on Soochow Creek indicated Japanese preparations to use both streams to transport military cumplies to armies advancing westward toward Nanking. Before Chinese withdrawal from Shanghai, British officials had prevented Japanese launches
