Will Enter Fully Into Coronation Day Celebration-Officers Elected

The half-yearly meeting of the Prince Rupert branch of the Canadian Legion, British Empire Service League, took place last evening with an unusually large attendance of members.

Considerable attention was devoted to consideration of how best the members could co-operate in observance of Coronation Day. The branch will parade as a body to the service at the Capitol Theatre in the forenoon and will later take part in the general parade. Berets and medals will be worn. A Canadian Legion float will be entered in the parade.

It is also planned to have the members join in a parade on Sunday, May 9, when the colors of the 102nd Battalion (overseas) will be deposited in St. Andrew's Cathe-

Dissatisfaction at the treatment accorded ex-service men in connecwas expressed by certain members. Jock McLean, Scott ish Golfer, Turns Professional Britain loses another of her international amateurs with desertion of Golfer Jock McLean, crack Walker Cup star, who joins one of his native Scottish clubs as a pro. McLean has held the Scottish amateur championship for the past three years, has been open champion of Ireland twice, and was only egde out by Johnny Fischer for the United States amateur title in 1936 by a hair raising extra hole finish. He was rated pick of the British cup team which failed to win the Walker Cup from America's amateurs during the past season. Here is the likeable Jock practising his swing.
