Chiang Kai Shek, president of China, is preparing to ing considerable success in that leaving three or four buds with Church on the subject "The Rich meet the Japanese on their own ground in their own way. direction. Just now he is speaking softly to them, allowing them concessions and in every way trying to keep them from are now being studied by a numattacking before the country is ready to receive them. In the meantime, the defences of the country are beingi strengthened, the army is being trained, planes are being! secured, roads are being built and everything possible done to put the country in a position to defend itself. The president, who is a Christian general, has found that the only way to deal with military people is to talk to them in their own language and meet guns with guns. Their country is being educated in nationalism and is expected to emerge finally as a strong military country able and willing to defend itself against any foe. That is the method adopted in all Christian countries and, if it is not Christian, it seems to be effective. People who are not willing to defend themselves are not worth saving.

Diplomats Are Busy

Diplomats are busy in Europe just now. Most of them are trying to keep Europe out of war. # Man Discussed

Last evening Rev. T. J. Hind, M. A. of Vancouver addressed a fair sized gathering in First Baptist

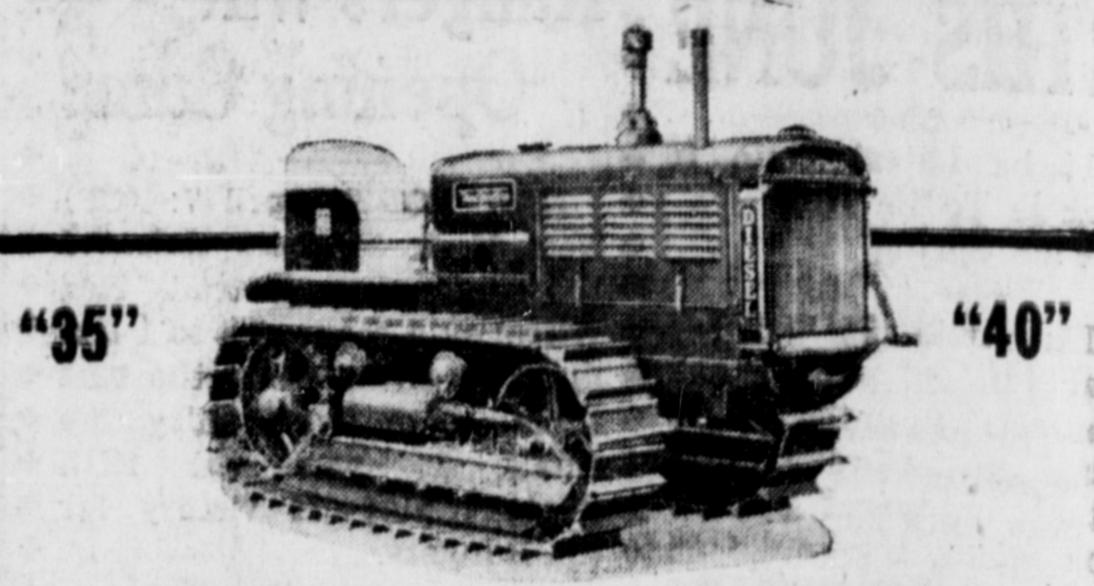

Speaking from a parable in Luke 12, 13 to 21, Mr. Hind cited the instance of the man coming to Jesus about his inheritance. To him this was an important question. Many people today were concerned about; their inheritance and many would make Jesus a divider of the inheri-EARLY DAYS tance.
