Another Halibut Boat Charged-Queen Charlottes Closed To Net Salmon Fishing

The Vancouver halibut boat Bayview, Capt. Dan Wedge, in port today with 2500 pounds of halibut, had been ordered in by the Fisheries patrol for an alleged infraction of the Pacific Internationa' Fisheries regulations. The charge is that of having had halibut in possession in a closed area while fishing for other species. The hearing will take place next week with tion and T. W. Brown for the defence.

There was a question period at the close of the address. In answer to one question, the speaker declared that it was not the policy of Spanish loyalists to attack churches although there had been cases where churches had been used as fortresses by the fascists and, therefore, had to be cleaned out. Spanish loyalists were a religiously inclined people and, in loyalist Spain, nuns and priests were - found to be sympathizers with the Spain, he asserted, was but the people in spite of the attitude of beginning of the fight against some of the leaders of the church world fascism.
