The air seems charged with war ideas. Under such conditions it seems almost impossible that there can be peace in the world.

CANADA ONE OF THE PLUMS

If Britain falls, Canada will be one of the plums that will fall to the invader, according to Robert H. B. Mackenzie. This will happen whether Canada remains neutral or not. He points out in a letter to the southern press that the British Columbia coast has been thoroughly surveyed by the Japanese and that they know more about it than do Canadians.

Of course this is only an opinion but it does seem as if it had possibilities. None of us would like to have a Japanese Lieutenant Governor at Victoria and a Legislature controlled by Japanese in this province.

. A few years ago Britain was the friend of Japan. Today because that country is refused a free hand in the Orient, Britain is the enemy to be wiped out.

CARE IS NEEDED None know better than the British Government that care must be experienced in accepting any statement or unsupported charges in regard to who torpedoed the British freighter Endymion in the Mediterranean Sea. It is easy to suspect that it was done by Italian submarines but much more difficult to prove. If the British accepted the charges of the Spanish government it might have meant war with Italy but Britain is not being forced into any such position.

HAVE YOU SMOKED

A TURRET

of this name

"Deep down in all our hearts there is a constant, gnawing desire to be appreciated . . . to hear words of praise and INFLUENCE approval.

"Husbands and wives are no exception to this rule; yet, in far too many homes, mutual appreciation is mighty scarce."

"So, when your wife wears a becoming new frock-or maybe a made-over old one-why not compliment her on it? Tell her how nice and young she looks in that pretty dress. "The chances are she has been anxiously wondering how you are going to like it. By being lavish in your praise you satisfy her desire for appreciation."

"Countless opportunities arise every day for husbands-and they do is to notice each other's hats or dresses."

"Women, you know, are profoundly interested in clothes.

"The same thing is true of the dinners she plans and prepares. Back in Czarist Russia, when the guests had enjoyed a fine dinner, they sent for the cook and congratulated him. "Take a tip from the Russians. Next time your wife serves an exceptionally good dinner, tell her how much you appreciate it. As Texas Guinan used to say: "Give the little girl a great big hand."

Quality and Mildness

URRETS are appreciated by discriminating smokers L everywhere because of their distinctive taste, found in no other cigarette.
