Cannery Crews Assembling for Season—Halibut Landings Heavy at Seattle North Sea Has Convicts on Board

Angus Currie, manager of Claxton cannery, and Mrs. Currie and R. H. Gurd, accountant of Cassiar cannery, and Mrs. Gurd arrived on the Skeena River from Vancouver at the week-end aboard the steamer Cardena. They were accompanied by members of the cannery crews and will go to work at once getting the plants in readiness for the season's operations. The Cardena, on her present voyage, also brought north members of the Rivers Inlet cannery crews.

H. W. Harris, manager of North Pacific cannery, paid his first visit of the season to town Saturday, having come in on one of the cannery boats on business. Mr. Harris arrived on the Skeena from Vancouver the week previous.

Union steamer Catala, Capt. James Findlay, arrived in port at 9:30 last night from the south and sailed a couple of hours later for Stewart, Anyox and other northern points where she will return here Tuesday morning southbound.

Several small halibut boats landed catches at Ketchikan on Saturday, prices ranging up to 6.5c and 4.4c. The boats in were: Norma Jane, 6,000 pounds; A968, 4,000; Cora, 7,000, and D901, 1,200 pounds. There were also a number of small salmon boats in Ketchikan on Saturday prices being up to 13 1/4c and 6c.

Ten boats landed catches of halibut at Seattle Saturday aggregating 274,500 pounds. They were: Vansee, 40,000, San Juan, 7c and 6c; Sunset, 36,000, San Juan, 7c and 6c; Martindale, 38,000, Sebastian, 7c and 6c; Ilene, 36,000, San Juan, 6 3/4c and 6 1/4c; Lebanon, McCallum, 7 1/2c and 6c; Betty J., 16,500, New England, 7 1/2c and 6c; Flint, 13,000, New England, 7 1/2c and 6c; June, 18,000, Whiz, 7 1/2c and 6c; National, 17,000, Sebastian, 7 1/2c and 6c; Orbit, 18,000, Booth, 7c and 6c.

Seattle last week had its heaviest single week's halibut landings since 1936. A total of 1,400,000 pounds of fish was brought there. What is expected to be a basic low price for the year was established, this being 7c and 6c.

Making her first halibut trip in several years, the Ivanhoe, which has been engaged in sardine and mackerel fishing, left Seattle last week but struck a log in the Straits of Juan de Fuca and had to return to Seattle with a broken propeller. Repairs having been made, the Ivanhoe left Seattle again on Saturday for the fishing grounds.

With a capacity list of passengers including Alaskans and Yukoners going north for the season, C.P.R. steamer Princess Louise, Capt. S. K. Gray, was in port from 8 to 9 o'clock Sunday morning bound north from Vancouver to Skagway.

Calling at Prince Rupert from 4 to 7 o'clock Sunday morning, the Northland Transportation Co.'s steamer North Sea, Capt. A. W. Nickerson, discharged fresh halibut from Ketchikan for transshipment East over Canadian National Railways and then sailed in continuation of her voyage to Seattle. Among her passengers the North Sea had on board a dozen prisoners in custody of federal officers. They were being taken south to serve sentences imposed at a session of district court in Ketchikan.

More fresh halibut was in from Ketchikan this morning for transshipment East over Canadian National Railways. The steamer Chatham, formerly Evelyn Berg, arrived at 8:30 with Capt. Olaf Hansen in command and, after discharging two carloads, sailed at 11 a.m. for Seattle. The Salvor, Capt. Fitcher, and Beloit, Capt. John Knapland, were also in this morning from Ketchikan, each with a carload of halibut.

Freighter Salvor, Capt. Albert Georgeson, was in port over the week-end with cargo for local delivery.

Imperial Oil Co.'s small tanker Marvolute, Capt. McDonald, arrived in port this morning from Vancouver. The Marvolute will service smaller stations of the company hereabouts while in northern waters.

"Fruit-a-lives" made from fruits and herbs, will strengthen and build up your liver like nothing else will. You'll be amazed how well you are every morning. Try Fruit-a-lives. All druggists.

FIGURED IN AUTO CRASH

Narrow Escape For George Dibb Of This City and Companions In Accident on Cariboo Highway

Bearing the marks of an automobile accident in which he was involved on the Cariboo Highway just west of the Fraser Canyon George Dibb returned home from Vancouver on the Catala last night. He has been away for three weeks, having made a business trip through the central interior and back via Vancouver.

Motoring south from Prince George, it was between Ashcroft and Vancouver where the accident occurred. The steering gear of the automobile became disabled and the car plunged off the side of the highway down a hillside into the right-of-way of the Canadian Pacific Railway. The vehicle turned over three times and was almost completely wrecked.

George, with a badly cut leg and also with abrasions about the forehead, suffered less severe injuries than did two companions. One had severe cuts about the face and head in the breaking of the windshield. The third, already suffering from rheumatism, sustained a broken shoulder and a severely strained back.

George, who was able to give first aid to his companions before a truck came along and picked up the party, spent a day and a half himself in hospital at Chilliwack.

CALLANDER, Ont., April 25: (CP)—Little Marie Dionne, one of the famous quintuplets, mystified the staff of the hospital yesterday when she tried to water a hobby horse with a beach pail. The question was where had Marie seen a horse, much less one being watered. The riddle was solved when Dr. Allan Dafoe recalled that about a year ago a horse had been used in ploughing the hospital grounds. Marie had evidently seen it being watered from a pail and had remembered.
